American Masculinities in Contemporary Documentary Film Sara Martín, 2023-05-24 Most documentaries deal with men but what do they actually say about masculinity In this groundbreaking volume Sara Martín analyses more than forty 21st century documentaries to explore how they represent American men and masculinity From Jennifer Siebel Newsom's The Mask You Live In to Raoul Peck's I Am Not Your Negro this volume explores sixteen different faces of American masculinity the good man the activist the politician the whistleblower the criminal the sexual abuser the wrongly accused the dependent man the soldier the capitalist the adventurer the sportsman the architect the photographer the musician and the writer The collective portrait drawn by the documentaries discloses a firm critical stance against the contradictions inherent in patriarchy which makes American men promises of empowerment it cannot fulfill The filmmakers view of American masculinity emphasizes the vulnerability of disempowered men before the abuses of the patriarchal system run by hegemonic men and a loss of bearings about how to be a man after the impact of feminism accompanied nonetheless by a celebration of resilient masculinity and of the good American man Firmly positioning documentaries as an immensely flexible relevant tool to understand 21st century American men and masculinity their past present and future this book will interest students and scholars of film studies documentary film American cultural studies gender and masculinity awareness of themselves as males Their approach goes beyond scholarship which traditionally looks at men and women in terms of what they do and how they have influenced a given field or era Rather this important work delves into the psychological core of manhood which is shaped not only by biology but also by history society and culture Encapsulating the current state of scholarly interpretation within the field of Men s Studies American Masculinities A Historical Encyclopedia is designed to help students and scholars advance their studies develop new questions for research and stimulate new ways of exploring the history of American life Key Features Reader s Guide facilitates browsing by topic and easy access to information Extensive name place and concept index gives users an additional means of locating topics of interest More than 250 entries each with suggestions for further reading Cross references direct users to related information Comprehensive bibliography includes a list of sources organized by categories in the field Topics Covered Arts Literature and Popular Culture Body Health and Sexuality Class Ethnic Racial and Religious Identities Concepts and Theories Family and Fatherhood General History Icons and Symbols Leisure and Work Movements and Organizations People Political and Social Issues About the Editor Bret E Carroll is Associate Professor of History at California State University Stanislaus He received his Ph D from Cornell University in 1991 He is author of The Routledge Historical Atlas of Religion in America 1997 Spiritualism in Antebellum America 1997 and several articles on nineteenth century masculinity

Masked Men Steve Cohan,1997-12-22 The fifties marks the moment when a heterosexual homosexual dualism came to dominate U S culture s thinking about masculinity The films of this era record how gender and sexuality did not easily come together in a normative manhood common to American men Instead these films demonstrate the widely held perception of a crises of masculinity Masked Men documents how movies of the fifties represented masculinity as a multiple masquerade Hollywood s star system positioned the male actor as a professional performer and as a body intended to solicit the erotic interest of male and female viewers alike Drawing on publicity poster art fan magazines and the popular press as a means of following the links between fifties stars their films and the social tensions of the period Cohan juxtaposes Hollywood s narratives of masculinity against the personae of leading men like Cary Grant Humphrey Bogart John Wayne Charlton Heston Yul Brynner William Holden Montgomery Clift Marlon Brando and Rock Hudson Masked Men focuses on the gender and sexual masquerades that organized their performances of masculinity on and off screen

Upstairs and Downstairs James Leggott,Julie Anne Taddeo,2014-12-11 The international success of Downton Abbey has led to a revived interest in period dramas with older programs like The Forsyte Saga being rediscovered by a new generation of fans whose tastes also include grittier fare like Ripper Street Though often criticized as a form of escapist conservative nostalgia these shows can also provide a lens to examine the class and gender politics of both the past and present In Upstairs and Downstairs British Costume Drama Television from The Forsyte Saga to Downton Abbey James Leggott and Julie Anne Taddeo provide a collection of essays that analyze key developments in the history of period dramas from the late 1960s to the present day Contributors explore such issues as how the genre fulfills and disrupts notions of quality television the process of adaptation the relationship between UK and U S television and the connection between the period drama and wider developments in TV and popular culture Additional essays examine how fans shape the content and reception of these dramas and how the genre has articulated or generated debates about gender sexuality and class In addition to Downton Abbey and Upstairs Downstairs other programs discussed in this collection include Call the Midwife Danger UXB Mr Selfridge Parade s End Piece of Cake and Poldark Tracing the lineage of costume drama from landmark productions of the late 1960s and 1970s to some of the most talked about productions of recent years Upstairs and Downstairs will be of value to students teachers and researchers in the areas of film television Victorian studies literature gender studies and British history and culture

Armed Forces Robert Eberwein, 2007-06-13 In war films the portrayal of deep friendships between men is commonplace Given the sexually anxious nature of the American imagination such bonds are often interpreted as carrying a homoerotic subtext In Armed Forces Robert Eberwein argues that an expanded conception of masculinity and sexuality is necessary in order to understand more fully the intricacy of these intense and emotional human relationships Drawing on a range of examples from silent films such as What Price Glory and Wings to sound era works like The Deer Hunter Platoon Three Kings and Pearl Harbor he shows how close readings of war films particularly in relation to their cultural contexts demonstrate that depictions of heterosexual love including those in romantic triangles actually help to define and clarify the nonsexual nature of male love The book also explores the problematic aspects of masculinity and sexuality when threatened by wounds as in The Best Years of Our Lives and considers the complex and persistent analogy between weapons and the male body as in Full Metal Jacket and Saving Private Ryan
