

A surreal landscape under a large, glowing moon. A winding, glowing path leads from the foreground towards the horizon. In the lower left, a traveler is seen from behind, carrying a large pack and holding a staff. The scene is set against a backdrop of distant, misty mountains.

El Camino Infinito Joel S. Goldsmith, 1997 Un libro que nos enseña a alcanzar una comprensión espiritual de la vida y a vivir lo cotidiano de acuerdo con ella Todos podemos abrir las ventanas de nuestra alma y contemplar las glorias infinitas de un mundo que se halla más allá de las apariencias Music for Unknown Journeys by Cristian Aliaga Ben

Bolig, 2021-02-11 What is the purpose of travel in an age when millions are displaced against their will or have no home to speak of in the first place How can we travel without being tourists without erasing the stories of those who live where we visit These are some of the questions addressed in Cristian Aliaga's compelling collection of prose poems Music for Unknown Journeys This collection contains Aliaga's travelling sketches in the tradition of Matsuo Bashō John Berger or W G Sebald Each prose poem is geographically situated in his travels across Patagonia or his more recent journeys around the edge lands of Europe His work is politically acute exploring struggles over territory resources and culture in the places he visits There is an intense emotional charge as he records the stories of those who globalization and contemporary capitalism have used and left behind This volume brings together a generous selection of Aliaga's prose poems the majority previously unseen in English as well as a substantial introduction to the author's work and its context both literary and political by the editor and translator Cristian Aliaga b 1962 Tres Cuervos Province of Buenos Aires is one of Argentina's foremost contemporary poets His work has been highly praised in the TLS and elsewhere Identidad y memoria en las poetisas mexicanas del siglo
