Camp Management Henry William Gibson,1923 Deer Camp Devotions Roland Lindeman,2019-06-24 I have been a pastor for over 35 years and was introduced to deer hunting in the first congregation that I served in Northern Minnesota In other words I have been a deer hunter for as long as I have been a pastor One of the things that I appreciate about going to deer camp is the fact that at deer camp it doesn t matter that I m a pastor At deer camp I am just one of the hunters no better and no worse than anyone else Deer hunting has always been enjoyable for me because it provides an annual escape from the routine and constant focus of pastoring a congregation Still I have also found a connection between what happens at deer camp and who I am as not just a pastor but as a person of faith Because I am a pastor I have received a couple of deer hunting devotional books as gifts from people who knew that I have an interest in hunting As I have read the devotions in those books I have been mostly disappointed by the lack of focus on the good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ and I have thought to myself I could do better than that Having shared this observation with some of my deer hunting friends they have challenged me to write this deer hunting devotional which conveys I hope not just a love for deer hunting but also a distinct Evangelical Lutheran focus on the good news of God s love for all people The stories in this book are all true I have done my best to respect the privacy of the people with whom I hunt so the only names that are shared are the names of my own family members and the first names of those friends who have died and who are dearly missed I decided to write thirty devotions for the thirty days in November because most of my hunting has been in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan where the firearm hunting season always begins on the 15th of November and ends on the 30th of November My experience is that once I turn the page on the calendar and know that the month of November has begun I have already entered into the anticipation phase of deer hunting from November 1st to November 15th which is why the title for this book is Thirty devotions for the thirty days in November 27 Devotions for Camp Staff Kent Little,1992 Camp devotions Kenneth Christopher Sparrow,1936

Keep the Fire Going Gabe Barrett,2016-05-09 Keep The Fire Going is a devotional that starts when you get back from a mission trip After a mission trip you get back into normal life and the usual grind of things and daily problems return And it takes a conscious effort to not go back to living the exact same way you did before your trip This devotional was written to help with that It ll both encourage and challenge you And hopefully it ll keep you moving forward The best part about mission trips is the power they have to change us They open our eyes to the problems and pain of others They show us new cultures and ways to look at things They give us opportunities to see what God is doing in the world and to be a part of it But your trip was useless if you don t allow it to make you different So on the most important day of your trip the day you go home it s time to go see what God is doing in your hometown And it s time to be a part of it This book will help you keep the fire going Elite Camp Michael Washer,2021-07-30 Athletic excellence is achieved only through constant training and discipline and no athlete will do well unless he is willing to do the work that is necessary to develop his or her skills It is no different in Christian life but instead of physical training the Christian needs Biblical training 1 Timothy 4 7 tells us to exercise ourselves to godliness through the reading and obeying of God s Word This book is designed to aid young Christians as they begin the lifelong process of training to be all that God wants them to be and walking with the Saviour in daily devotions Can be used for discipleship personal devotions or Bible study Brief Devotions for Passion-tide Brief devotions,1881 America ,1917 Northfield Echoes Delavan Leonard Pierson,1900
