Campo Santo Poems By Susan Wood:

Campo Santo Susan Wood, 1992-01-01 Susan Wood draws on her own past to create poems that are remarkable for their depth and clarity and for the stories they tell In Campo Santo she chooses grief over nothingness and constructs tales out of her own lost world the retrieval system of memory Wood's lyrical narratives chart the intimacies and distances between people She writes about the pleasures and sorrows of family relationships about the death of her mother about the agonies of race in a small town about the inconsolabilities of grief and the consolations of poetry But for all the sorrows in these poems there are also odd moments of joy and celebration the world caught and transfigured recovered We all deserve some sweetness in the end Wood tells us The poems in Campo Santo demonstrate Wood's confident mastery of poetic technique With this collection she takes her place as a mature accomplished poet Yellow Shoe Poets George Garrett, 1999-10-01 Since 1964 when Louisiana State University Press published its inaugural book of verse Miller Williams's A Circle of Stone its poetry list has grown exponentially 191 books by 93 poets into a program that inspires understandable pride in those associated with it Two collections have won the Pulitzer Prize The Flying Change 1986 by Henry Taylor and Alive Together 1996 by Lisel Mueller Another book by Mueller The Need to Hold Still 1980 won the National Book Award while several other LSU titles have been finalists for that distinction most recently The Fields of Praise 1997 by Marilyn Nelson and The Vigil 1993 by Margaret Gibson Dozens more have been recognized for their excellence through a host of various honors The Press publishes the winner of the annual Walt Whitman Award given by The Academy of American Poets for a first collection and in 1996 it launched the Southern Messenger series in collaboration with Dave Smith bringing two shining works into the fold each year The appearance of The Collected Poems of Robert Penn Warren in 1998 meant for the Press the realization of a long dearly held dream To mark this thirty five year old tradition as the century and millennium turn and to offer a sampling of its richness The Yellow Shoe Poets a retrospective anthology was compiled under the editorship of George Garrett a longtime colleague of the Press and the author of eight poetry volumes Say the LSU poets real fast with a southern drawl and you get the ridiculously wonderful moniker that poet Elizabeth Seydel Morgan's young friend innocently mistook for this noble band It's an image Brendan Galvin has appropriated to a perfect fit in his poem Yellow Shoe Poet written on behalf of his fellow yellow shoes across the years All 173 poems are taken from LSU Press books and were selected by the poets themselves if living Arranged alphabetically by author they consist of at least one poem from every poet published by the Press Goethe's admonition that one ought every day at least to read a good poem can find no better starting point than in The Yellow Shoe Poets Generations of Texas Poets Oliphant, Dave, 2015-10-01 Dave Oliphant is widely considered the finest poetry critic ever produced by Texas This volume brings together some 40 years of essays articles and reviews on the topic of Texas poetry its history as well as addressing individual poets and their books Only one other book in the last two decades addressed the topic and GENERATIONS OF TEXAS POETS is larger more comprehensive and of superior literary quality In 1971 Larry McMurtry famously descried the lack of good Texas poetry Oliphant has spent a lifetime nurturing it publishing it and has become its best critic The Best American Poetry 2006 Billy Collins,2008-06-17 A vivid anthology of poems filled with wit humor imagination and surprise selected by guest editor Billy Collins The seventy five poems in an array of styles and forms in this collection celebrate the pleasures of poetry from writers as varied as Laura Cronk to Reb Livingston With insightful comments from the poets illuminating their work and series editor David Lehman s thought provoking foreword The Best American Poetry 2006 is a brilliant addition to a series that links the most noteworthy verse and prose poems of our time to a readership as discerning as it is devoted to the art of poetry Texas in Poetry 2 Billy Bob Hill,2002 And of course one poem about Texas that is magnificent in its awfulness Lasca with memorable lines like Scratches don t count In Texas down by the Rio Grande Poets & Writers ,1993 Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 The Book of Irish American Poetry Daniel Tobin,2007 This is the first major anthology of Irish American poetry It breaks new ground by collecting for the first time the work of over two hundred Irish American poets as well as other American poets whose work enjoins Irish American themes The Book of Irish American Poetry draws together the best and most representative poetry by Irish Americans and about Irish America that has been written over the past three hundred years Daniel Tobin begins with poetry of the populist period poets such as John Boyle O Reilly and moves to the work of Irish Americans who have made an indelible imprint on American poetry Robinson Jeffers Marianne Moore Louise Bogan John Berryman Thomas McGrath Robert Creeley Frank O Hara Ted Berrigan Galway Kinnell and Alan Dugan among others The anthology concludes with distinctive poems by contemporary Irish Americans whose work is likely to stand the test of time such as Tess Gallagher Brendan Galvin and Brigit Pegeen Kelly The Book of Irish American Poetry recovers many poets who have been forgotten and places already notable figures in American poetry within the context of a distinctively Irish American tradition to come

The Book of Ten Susan Wood,2011-02-20 Susan Wood brings us this new collection of her poems and a steadfast intent to write with courage of history and contemporary American life She is able adept even to make things mundane seem complex and worthy of her pen while in due contrast illuminating things that could be considered justly grand as very human tactile and near Like Jorie Graham or Geoffery Hill she is swift and unapologetic about plunking her reader down in the middle of some landscape as if the dear reader had been on holiday there with her all along and provides details of her views of this place making it familiar at once even if it screams unknown remote or exotic Coal Hill Review The Southern Review ,1991 The Georgia Review ,2013 Poetry Harriet Monroe,1992 The Best American Poetry 2000 Rita Dove,2000-09-19 Former Poet Laureate Dove has chosen the best poems of the year from a wide range of literary magazines and journals presenting works by W S Merwin Lucille Clifton Susan Mitchell John Ashbery and others The poets comment about their work Lehman writes the Foreword Night Out Kurt Brown,Laure-Anne Bosselaar,1997 Deep in the concrete canyons of even the largest cities nature lurks Its unpredictable energies animate not only squirrels and microorganisms not only ginkgoes roots and rivers but also the engines of human desire Urban Nature captures the many faces of wildness in the city with poems by more than 130 emerging and recognized poets Rather than just lamenting the loss of paradise these poems celebrate nature s resiliency They memorialize a salamander s last stand in a parking lot link the cosmos to the consumer ethos The Pleiades you could probably get downtown evoke horses galloping between skyscrapers and track geological time in a pothole Directory of American Poetry Books ,1993 Iris ,1991 The American Book Review ,1992 The American Humanities Index Stephen H. Goode,1995 South Atlantic Review ,1991 Directory of American Poetry Books Poets House (Firm),1993
