Can You Do This:

To Whom It May Concern Sondra L. Settles, 2005-10-24 As a writer I mainly focus on relationships All the perils concerned with becoming involved in and maintaining a relationship with the opposite sex As women are emotional creatures they sometimes feel that they must have an emotional relationship before beginning a sexual relationship While men are usually more visual and physical by nature They are turned on by physical contact and visual stimuli but women need so much more than that Women need emotional and spiritual nurturing while men tend to lack understanding in that area of women's needs When the two come together this tremendous lack of understanding causes an abundance of pain and heartache Women are left feeling underappreciated neglected and unloved Men on the other hand usually don't understand what the problem is in the relationship We often assume they will not understand there is also a gap in communication which furthers the stress we feel As a writer I attempt to explain this pain and heartache that women so often go through because of these misunderstandings But in the end we MUST eventually turn to a real relationship with God in order to reach the fullest potential that life has to offer Can You Keep Your Faith in College? Abbie Smith, 2006-04-05 From dorm and Greek life to dating and academia every piece of the college equation becomes a loaded opportunity for you and your faith to thrive Can You Keep Your Faith in College will help guide you through the best years of your life You're not alone in the struggle to maintain the faith you carried with you when you first set foot on campus Packed with encouragement specifically for these trying years Can You Keep Your Faith in College compiles experiences shared by students from more than fifty schools across the nation and targets pertinent issues including The Transition academics dorm life peer pressure extracurricular activities sports Greek life dating studying abroad racial relations and God's Surprise Encounters Don't let your faith whittle away build it up It's what defines you
