Canada Votes:

Canada Votes, 1935-1988 Frank B. Feigert, 1989 This work updates and enhances Howard Scarrow's Canada Votes 1962 with complete election data from the constituency level through the province region and nation for more than a half century of Canadian political life since the benchmark election of 1935 Frank Feigert adds a description of the circumstances of all the elections since and he gives background descriptions of the electoral systems in each province and territory The result is a compendium of data and analysis that can be found nowhere else and which will be an invaluable sourcebook for students of Canadian political behavior

Canada Votes Howard A. Scarrow, 1962 The Canada Year Book Canada. Dominion Bureau of Statistics, 1927 The Canadian Federal Election of 2021 Jon H. Pammett, Christopher Dornan, 2022-09-15 Media pundits and students of Canadian politics alike have strived to interpret the relevance of the 2021 federal election held in the midst of a global pandemic and reinforcing the existing parliamentary balance of power This timely volume explains the election's import offering an insightful account of Canadian democracy in an age of increasing rancour and polarization and explaining why the Liberals did not win a majority government In a unique collaboration some of the country's most distinguished political scientists pollsters and journalists examine the parties issues machinery and media of Canadian electoral politics teasing out the complexities and nuances of what was seen to be a premature federal election The Canadian Federal Election of 2021 analyzes the campaigns of the major parties and the patterns of voting behaviour A special feature of this book is its focus on issues of diversity and difference in the partisan theatre the voting patterns of gendered Indigenous and newly immigrant Canadians as well as the millennial generation These chapters offer important lessons for the present and for the election to come A must read for students journalists those working at affiliated think tanks and institutes and engaged citizens this thoughtful expos will interest international observers and anyone following the Canadian political landscape

Canada's Engagement with the Middle East Peace Process and the Palestinians Jeremy Wildeman, Emma Swan, 2021-12-26 This edited volume explores Canada's foreign policy relationship with the Palestinians and broader Middle East Peace Process MEPP Canada was intensively involved from 1992 to 2000 in peacebuilding as a mediator in the multilateral part of the MEPP as chair of the Refugee Working Group and sponsor of Track II negotiations This all changed after a significant mid 2000s discursive and policy shift

when Canada withdrew from the politics of Israel Palestine peacebuilding and took a strong partisan stance in favour of Israel Through 10 chapters by current and former government insiders and academics with extensive field experience this unique edited volume offers insight into decades of evolution in Canadian policy toward the Palestinians MEPP and the Middle East It arrives at an important time when the international community is reconsidering how it views Israel s entrenched occupation of the Palestinians after three failed decades of United States led efforts to find peace through a negotiated two state model Today peace may never have appeared further away after the Trump Administration adopted policies directly contradictory to the MEPP This proved a test to Canada s own official policy toward Israel and Palestine its longest running and most important region of engagement in the Middle East The chapters were originally published as a special issue of the Canadian Foreign Policy Journal guest edited by Jeremy Wildeman and Emma Swan The Canadian Magazine ,1920 Statutes of Canada Canada,1872 Report of the Canadian Delegates to the Assembly League of Nations.
