Loss and Adaptation Kwok B. Chan, Doreen Marie Indra, 1987 The Canadian Asian Studies Association CASA is pleased that this richly documented update of the state of our knowledge of Southeast Asian refugees in Canada is being launched. It is a timely sequel to the original and highly successful Southeast Asian Exodus: From Tradition to Resettlement edited by Elliott Tepper. 1980 a pioneering study of the Indo-Chinese problem in Canada. The present volume represents the culmination and drawing together of some of the best research which has grown so abundantly over the past five years. Taken together these two volumes provide a firm foundation for a truly longitudinal resettlement study which can potentially be built upon as far into the future as research interests, energies and funds permit. Collectively the topics chapters in this volume provide a fairly full coverage of the principal problems of Indo-Chinese adaptation in Canada from the bottom line and often hard facts of occupational and economic adjustment to the more subtle and sensitive questions of language learning, social and psychological needs. Doreen Indra's introduction supplies a comprehensive and impressive overview of the entire Southeast Asian refugee situation in Canada and this is complemented by one of the most complete bibliographies on the subject yet compiled in this country.
