Canada People And Places:

National Geographic Guide to the Historic Sites of Canada National Geographic, 2017 Parks Canada official guidebook Cover People, Places, and Practices in the Arctic Cunera Buijs, Kim van Dam, Frédéric Laugrand, 2022-11-30 This collection follows anthropological perspectives on peoples Canadian Inuit Norwegian Sami Yupiit from Alaska and Inuit from Greenland places and practices in the Circumpolar North from colonial times to our post modern era This volume brings together fresh perspectives on theoretical concepts colonial imperial descriptions collaborative work of non Indigenous and Indigenous researchers as well as articles written by representatives of Indigenous cultures from an inside perspective The scope of the book ranges from contributions based on unpublished primary sources missionary journals and fairly unknown early Indigenous sources and publications to those based on more recent Indigenous testimonies and anthropological fieldwork museum exhibitions and self representations in the fields of fashion marketing and the arts The aim of this volume is to explore the making of representations for and or by Circumpolar North peoples The authors follow what representations have been created in the past and in some cases continue to be created in the present and the Indigenous employment of representations that has continuity with the past and also goes beyond traditional utilization By studying these representations we gain a better understanding of the dynamics of a society and its interaction with other cultures notably in the context of the dominant culture s efforts to assimilate Indigenous people and erase their story People s ideas about themselves and of the Other are never static not even if they share the same cultural background This is even more the case in the contact zone of the intercultural arena Images of the Other vary according to time and place and perceptions of others are continuously readjusted from both sides in intercultural encounters This volume has been prepared by the Research Group Circumpolar Cultures RGCC which is based in the Netherlands Its members conduct research on social and cultural change focusing on topics that are of interest to the Indigenous peoples of the Arctic The RGCC builds on a long tradition in Arctic studies in the Netherlands Nico Tinbergen Geert van den Steenhoven Gerti Nooter and Jarich Oosten and can rely on rich Arctic collections of artefacts and photographs in anthropological museums and extensive library collections The expertise of the RGCC in Arctic studies is internationally acknowledged by academics as well as circumpolar peoples The People, Place, and Space Reader Jen Jack Gieseking, William Mangold, Cindi Katz, Setha Low, Susan Saegert, 2014-04-16 The People Place and Space Reader brings together the writings of scholars designers and activists from a variety of fields to make sense of the makings and meanings of the world we inhabit They help us to understand the relationships between people and the environment at all scales and to consider the active roles individuals groups and social structures play in creating the environments in which people live work and play These readings highlight the ways in which space and place are produced through large and small scale social political and economic practices and offer new ways to think about how people engage the environment in multiple and diverse ways Providing an essential resource for students of urban studies geography sociology and many other areas this book brings together important but till now widely dispersed writings across many inter related disciplines Introductions from the editors precede each section introducing the texts demonstrating their significance and outlining the key issues surrounding the topic A companion website PeoplePlaceSpace org extends the work even further by providing an on going series of additional reading lists that cover issues ranging from food security to foreclosure psychiatric spaces to the environments of predator animals The Statistical Year Book of Canada ... 1886-1904 ... Year of Issue ... Canada. Department of Agriculture,1903 Documentary Television in Canada David Hogarth,2002 Since the inception of Canadian television in the early 1950s documentary television consistently a favourite among viewers has been misunderstood and often maligned by its critics More popular and arguably more innovative than its cinematic counterpart or than dramatic Canadian television Canadian documentary television has decisively shaped the form and function of public service television in this country David Hogarth traces its history back to its roots in radio in the 1930s and 1940s and examines the variety of forms of documentary television that developed in the decades that followed focusing on newsmagazines science programs historical essays docudramas and verit investigations He concludes with a discussion of the recent international success of documentary television as one of Canada s leading cultural exports examining the effects of globalisation and looking forward to the future of this genre While principally an overview of the last half century and an analysis of current conditions Documentary Television in Canada also includes detailed analysis of selected programs such as the For the Record series on schizophrenia Warrendale by Allan King Images of Canada by Vincent Tovell The Valour and The Horror episode Death by Moonlight and Shooting Indians by Ali Kazimi among others OECD Rural Policy Reviews Linking Indigenous Communities with Regional Development in Canada OECD,2020-01-21 Canada s Constitution Act 1982 recognises three Indigenous groups Indians now referred to as First Nations Inuit and M tis Indigenous peoples make a vital contribution to the culture heritage and economic development of Canada Despite improvements in Indigenous well being in recent decades significant gaps remain with the non Indigenous population This study focuses on four priority issues to maximise the potential of Indigenous economies in Canada The Place of the United States in a World Organization for the Maintenance of Peace American Academy of Political and Social Science,1921 Transformative Politics of Nature Andrea Olive,Chance Finegan,Karen F. Beazley,2023-10-02 Transformative Politics of Nature highlights the most significant barriers to conservation in Canada and discusses strategies to confront and overcome them Featuring contributions from academics as well as practitioners the volume brings together the perspectives of both Indigenous and non Indigenous experts on land and wildlife conservation in a way that honours and respects all peoples and nature Contributors provide insights that enhance understanding of key barriers important actors and strategies for shaping policy at multiple levels of government across Canada The chapters engage academics environmental conservation organizations and Indigenous communities in dialogues and explorations of the politics of wildlife conservation They address broad and interrelated themes organized into three parts barriers to conservation transformation through reconciliation and transformation through policy and governance Taken together the essays demonstrate the need for increased social political awareness of biodiversity and conservation in Canada enhanced wildlife conservation collaborative networks and increased scholarly attention to the principles policies and practices of maintaining and restoring nature for the benefit of all peoples species and ecologies Transformative Politics of Nature presents a vision of profound change in the way humans relate to each other and with the natural world

The People's Cyclopedia of Universal Knowledge William Harrison De Puy,1888 Newspaper and Bank Directory of the World Harlan Page Hubbard,1882 Printers' Ink; the ... Magazine of Advertising, Management and Sales ,1908 The Canadian Magazine ,1899 Godey's Lady's Book ,1897 Who are Canada's Aboriginal Peoples? Congress of Aboriginal Peoples,2002 This book emerged from a number of papers originally written for a conference held in Vancouver in 1998 by the Congress of Aboriginal Peoples Introduction Voices of Canada Donna M Goodman,J. Craig Harding,Thomas A Smith,2016 Sessional Papers of the Dominion of Canada Canada. Parliament,1914 Report of the Dominion fishery commission on the fisheries of the province of Ontario 1893 issued as vol 26 no 7 supplement House of Commons Debates, Official Report Canada. Parliament. House of Commons,1926 Agricultural and Industrial Progress in Canada ,1929 A Teachers' Handbook in Geography ... ,1905 Storied Landscapes Frances Swyripa,2010-09-01 Storied Landscapes is a beautifully written sweeping examination of the evolving identity of major ethno religious immigrant groups in the Canadian West Viewed through the lens of attachment to the soil and specific place and through the eyes of both the immigrant generation and its descendants the book compares the settlement experiences of Ukrainians Mennonites Icelanders Doukhobors Germans Poles Romanians Jews Finns Swedes Norwegians and Danes It reveals how each group s sense of identity was shaped by a complex interplay of physical and emotional ties to land and place and how that sense of belonging influenced and was influenced by relationships not only within the prairies and the Canadian nation state but also with the homeland and its extended diaspora Through a close study of myths symbols commemorative traditions and landmarks Storied Landscapes boldly asserts the inseparability of ethnicity and religion both to defining the prairie region and to understanding the Canadian nation building project

Enjoying the Beat of Expression: An Psychological Symphony within Canada People And Places

In a world used by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate communication, the melodic elegance and emotional symphony developed by the prepared word usually diminish into the backdrop, eclipsed by the relentless sound and disturbances that permeate our lives. But, set within the pages of Canada People And Places a marvelous literary value full of natural feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced.
