Canadian Anglicanism At The Dawn Of A New Century:

Canadian Anglicanism at the Dawn of a New Century M. Darrol Bryant, 2001 Christianity and Ethnicity in Canada Paul Bramadat, David Seljak, 2008-06-14 Over the past decade scholars and policy makers interested in Canadian multiculturalism have begun to take religion much more seriously. Moreover, Christian communities have become increasingly aware of the impact of ethnic diversity on church life. However, until very recently, almost no systematic academic attention has been paid to the intersection between the ethnic and religious identities of individuals or communities. This gap in both our academic literature and our public discourse represents an obstacle to understanding and integrating the large numbers of ethnic Christians, most of whom either join existing Canadian churches or create ethnically specific congregations. In Christianity and Ethnicity in Canada, eleven scholars explore the complex relationships between religious and ethnic identity within the nine major Christian traditions in Canada. The contributors discuss the ways in which changes in the ethnic composition of these traditions influence religious practice and identity, as well as how the nine religious traditions influence communal and individual ethnic identities. An introductory chapter by Paul Bramadat and David Seljak provides a thorough discussion of the theoretical, historical, and empirical issues involved in the study of Christianity and ethnicity in Canada. This volume complements Religion and Ethnicity in Canada, in which the authors address similar issues within the six major non-Christian communities in Canada and within Canadian health care, education, and politics. The Anglican Episcopate in Canada Michael Peers, 2008 First in a series of separately published works providing biographical detail on Anglican bishops in Canada, this volume covers the period 1976-2008. Developing a New Christology for a Postmodern Culture Donald D. Phillips, 2024-11-05 In an increasingly secular, contemporary, postmodern culture, many people have no understanding of Christianity or the importance and relevance of Jesus Christ. As a result, the Church's traditional liturgical texts, as well as the church-oriented language often used by Christians to explain the Gospel, are not helpful or accessible to those outside the Church. To respond to this challenge, the author uses a semiotic method based on the work of Robert Schreier to engage and describe the nature of contemporary postmodern culture. Using a narrative approach to the Gospels based on the work of the 20th-century historical theologian Hans Frei, the author derives a more modest, open-ended Christology which will converse with its cultural context and continue to be interpreted within contemporary Christian communities. Using social values analysis from a particular contemporary culture, the author then forms biblical statements about the person of Jesus Christ that are congruent with those values and uses them to construct a new Eucharistic Prayer. The result is a liturgical prayer that is accessible and enables members of that local culture to be embraced by and to embrace the identity of Jesus Christ. The Living Church, 1999 The Canadian Baptist, 1909 History of the Catholic Church in Western Canada Adrien Gabriel Morice, 1910 The Theological Significance of Jesus' Temple Action in Mark's Gospel Emilio G. Chávez, 2002 This work brings together a nuanced exegesis developed in conversation with concurrent and divergent voices

Topics include Jesus exorcizing activity and exousia over the accepted religious practices The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2005 The Churchman ,1887 An Ecological Theology Clifford C. Cain,2009 This study examines the historical roots of hierarchical dualism the dominant attitude characterizing the Western aproach toward nature which both separates humans from and elevates them above nautre allowing for exploitation of resources Ontario Public School History of Canada ,1912 American Book Publishing Record ,2001 The Canada Medical Record ,1901 The East & the West ,1925 A History of the Churches in the United States and Canada Robert T. Handy,1979 Sketches the church histories of both nations as they developed from pre colonial times to the present The Christian Century ,1928 Encyclopedia of American Religions J. Gordon Melton,2003 This encyclopedia revised and expanded contains over 2600 descriptive entries on the religious and spiritual groups of the United States and Canada Index de Périodiques Canadiens ,2002 Mission Field ,1918
