Canadian Fact On Poverty 1994:

The Canadian Fact Book on Poverty David P. Ross, Katherine Scott, Peter J. Smith, Canadian Council on Social Development, 2000 The Fact Book on Poverty clearly indicates certain groups in our society are especially vulnerable to poverty They include the old the long term unemployed and female heads of households

The Canadian Family in Crisis John F. Conway, 2003-08 In this book sociology professor John F Conway looks at families past present and future and examines the changing nature of family Figures from the first decade of the new millennium tell us that one marriage in two may well end in divorce Conway considers the implications of divorce the impact of social changes on men women and children and suggests how these issues might be better addressed through family policy The new edition addresses the harsh new reality facing Canadian families especially those most vulnerable as a result of the crisis of the family The Canadian Family in Crisis is the first book to examine the drastic changes in the Canadian family over the last thirty years

Family Change and Family Policies in Great Britain, Canada, New Zealand, and the United States Sheila B. Kamerman, Alfred J. Kahn, 1997 This is the first volume in a series reporting on the evolution of family policies in twenty Western welfare states and comparing current provisions The developments are presented in the context of a report on family change for each of the countries and with a view of the economic political and institutional contexts in which they occurred Each of the country reports in the present volume has been prepared as a team collaboration by internationally recognized experts The co editors have prepared an analytic introduction which discussed the methodology for the series as well as the hypotheses that emerge from these first case studies The topics include family formation and current structural patterns families and the division of labour the income of families earnings taxation transfer programmes as well as the political and institutional context for family policy An extensive bibliography is provided About the series A series of country studies and comparative analyses examining major changes in the family and the broad spectrum of family policies in Western industrial society in the second half of the twentieth century Vol 2 The Consociational Democracies Belgium Switzerland and the Netherlands Vol 3 France and Southern Europe Vol 4 Capitalist and Socialist Central Europe Austria the Germanies Hungary and Poland Vol 5 The Scandinavian Welfare States Vol 6 Family Industrial Society and the Welfare State in the West Early Variations and Long Term Developments in Comparative Perspective Vol 7 Family Policies in the West Since World War II A Cross National Analysis

Canadian Society Harry H. Hiller, 2000

Richer and Poorer Allahaar, Anton, Côté, James E., 1998 Inequality increased in Canada throughout the 1990s Despite government programs designed to confront the problem more people than ever lived below the poverty line with the young women and visible minorities at greatest risk Richer and Poorer describes the problem of inequality and explains why it is so hard to eradicate The authors discuss why public policy and programs have not succeeded in ending gender racial or other types of inequality and why without action inequality in Canada will only increase Richer and Poorer is an acute and detailed analysis of the disparities of wealth and poverty as experienced in 1990s

Canada Welfare in America Stanley W. Carlson-Thies, James W. Skillen, 1996 Discusses the current issue of welfare reform and shares views on what the church's position should be The Canadian Family in Crisis Conway, John F., 1997 The Canadian Family in Crisis is essential reading for anyone who is concerned about the direction family life is taking in the twenty first century The author looks at the changing nature of the family considers the implications of divorce the impact of social changes on men women and children and suggests how these issues might be better addressed through family policy

Homeless Gerald Daly, 2013-04-15 The causes of homelessness are disputed by both Right and Left But few would argue that life on the streets is anything other than dangerous and debilitating Unemployment deinstitutionalisation abuse in the home are among the stories the homeless tell Voluntary organisations point to the failure of emergency shelters and food banks the cut backs in social programmes and the severe shortage of affordable housing On the international scale the changing global system has placed new demands on the economies of Europe and north America which have impacted on resources employment and even political will This book is the first comprehensive international study of homelessness The author argues that the category of the homeless must itself be broadened to encompass those chronically without shelter to those in immediate risk of dispossession if homelessness is to be tackled effectively before and after it happens by public policy voluntary organisations and the individuals themselves

First World Hunger Graham Riches, 2016-07-27 First World Hunger examines hunger and the politics of food security and welfare reform 1980-95 in five liberal welfare states Australia Canada New Zealand the UK and the USA Through national case studies it explores the depoliticization of hunger as a human rights issue and the failure of New Right policies and charitable emergency relief to guarantee household food security The need for alternative integrated policies and the necessity of public action are considered essential if hunger is to be eliminated Canadian Families Nancy Mandell, Ann Duffy, 2000

An Introduction to Canada's Public Social Services Frank J. McGilly, 1998 In the mid 1990s every established social program in Canada was fundamentally reassessed most were radically changed Faced with continuing deficits and mounting debts all the provinces changed the basic structure of their public assistance programs and or reduced their benefits and looked for ways to cut spending on hospital and medical services For its part the federal government revamped unemployment insurance replaced long standing universal benefits Family Allowances and Old Age Security with programs based on tax expenditures that exclude many above average income Canadians and altered the basis and reduced the scale of its sharing of the costs of provincial programs In this revised edition of what has become a standard text Dr Frank McGilly fits these recent developments into context He explains how governmental income and health care programs have evolved in response to changes in Canadian society how they function and how they are financed and administered The author not only analyses how the programs work but also explores their underlying policy orientations Topics covered include income programs for seniors and for the unemployed workers compensation public assistance child and family benefits hospitalization insurance medicare and occupational and community health Special attention is given to the dynamics of the federal provincial relationship in social policy This volume lays the groundwork for an informed critique of social policy in Canada to provoke such a critique the strengths and weaknesses of programs as perceived from various points of view are assessed The book concludes with an overview of the challenges facing the Canadian welfare state on the threshold of the twenty first century Canadian Books in Print ,1997

Promoting Family Wellness and Preventing Child Maltreatment Isaac Prilleltensky,Geoffrey Brian Nelson,Leslea Peirson,2001-01-01 Deals with the promotion of emotional well being in families and the prevention of child maltreatment Values policies and resources are examined as both facilitators of and barriers to effective action Canadian Politics Rand Dyck,2002 Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02 Social Inequality in Canada James E. Curtis,Edward G. Grabb,L. Neil Guppy,1999 The purpose of the book is to introduce students to issues of social inequality in Canada It includes a collection of 30 articles which address all of the major aspects of social inequality Topics include social inequality social class social stratification social issues and Canadian Society The book begins from the premise that social inequality entails two broad components objective or structural conditions of social inequality and ideologies that help support these differences Social Welfare in Canada Andrew Armitage,2003 This book examines the development of Canada's extensive welfare state the various ideological views of social policy and the overwhelming historical contributions of liberal thought to social welfare in Canada Several programs that were developed fifty years ago under very different circumstances have been changed during the 1990s to reflect the limitations imposed by a changed economic order The Canadian Who's who ,2000 Canada's National Child Benefit Douglas Durst,1999 The National Child Benefit announced in the 1997 federal Budget promised 850 million dollars to move children out of the welfare rolls and the trap of poverty This book attempts to outline the key concepts of this new program and set the stage for discussion of its potential impact The writers do not agree This book does not present a unified argument either supporting or critiquing the program but raises a series of important issues and concerns regarding the programs effectiveness in addressing child poverty The question remains Is this new federal social program a phoenix rising from the ashes of past social welfare programs or just a federal fizzle The Proceedings of 1995 Annual Meeting, Research Committee on Sociology of Law, International Sociological Association: Papers, section meetings : supplement International Sociological Association. Research Committee on Sociology of Law. Meeting,1995
