Coast to Coast Prue Ahrens, Chris Dixon, 2020-05-22 From the beginnings of human settlement through to the Cook voyages and beyond histories of the Pacific are stories of contact and connection This vast region can be charted through histories of encounter between the diverse peoples of the Pacific Rim and the wider world Coast to Coast explores the networks of modernity that connected the various peoples of the Pacific Australia and North America as new means of transportation distribution and communication developed from the mid nineteenth century Steamboat Connections Frank Mackey, 2003-04-16 In Steamboat Connections Frank Mackey gives us a narrative account of the first twenty five years of steam navigation along the St Lawrence and Ottawa Rivers Relying on a wealth of primary archival sources Mackey focuses on the development of steamer traffic from 1816 when the foundations were laid for the first stage and steamboat line between Montreal and Upper Canada to the early 1840s when locks canals innovations and human daring conquered the rapids on those rivers and allowed for navigation between Montreal and the Great Lakes He shows how starting in 1841 small steamers ran the circuit down the rapids of the St Lawrence to Montreal and then back up to Kingston and other Great Lakes ports via the Ottawa River and the Rideau Canal Mackey introduces the entrepreneurs who forged this important link between Montreal and the nation's interior and chronicles the course of their industry correcting previous misinterpretations He sheds light not only on steamboats but also on the social commercial and geographical development that they made possible He shows that the history of this country a land with vast expanses and a harsh climate cannot be fully appreciated without looking at the different modes of transportation that made it possible Inland Seas .1990 Submerged Cultural Resources Study C.
