Canadian Foreign Policy 1955 1965 Selected Speeches And Documents:

Canadian Foreign Policy, 1955-1965 Arthur E. Blanchette, 1972 Canadian Foreign Policy, 1955-1965

Blanchette, 1977-01-15 This volume documents the decade in which Canada's influence on world affairs was at its apex and contains speeches and writings of Lester B. Pearson, Sydney Smith, Howard C. Green and Paul Martin Human Rights in

Canadian Foreign Policy R. Matthews, 1988-10-01 The pattern revealed is one of deliberate ambiguity. On some issues and in some forums Canada has acted vigorously to promote human rights internationally as in the United Nations Human Rights Commission, the United Nations Committee on Human Rights and the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe. Canada has been much less forceful about human rights in dealings with the International Labour Organization and has almost completely ignored this issue as it relates to international financial institutions. Canada has been outspoken about the violation of rights in countries ruled by communist regimes while hesitation and ambiguity are a feature of Canadian policies toward South Africa and Central America as well as in lending policies to international financial institutions. Canadian development assistance and Canadian arms sales. Each of these areas is examined in Human Rights in Canadian Foreign Policy. Canada is most vigorous on issues of human rights when the rights in question are civil and political rather than economic and social and when the offending regime is under Soviet rather than American influence. The contributors include Frances Arbour, Victoria Berry, John W. Foster, Rhoda E. Howard, Kalmen Kaplansky, T. A. Keenleyside, Allen McChesney, Ronald Manzer, Robert O. Matthews, Stefania Szlek, Miller Cathal J. Nolan, Kim Richard Nossal, Cranford Pratt, Renate Pratt, Ernie Regehr and H. Gordon Skilling Canada Since 1945 Robert Bothwell, Ian Drummond, John English, 1989-12-15 From the preface: A visitor seeing Canada for the first time since 1939 might well conclude that Canada even more than nations devastated by war has become another country. On the surface so much remains the same: the Liberals prevail in Ottawa, the provinces quarrel with Ottawa and among themselves and we worry about Americans in our future. But most of the pieces have been rearranged and the effect of the picture is quite different. This is a book about our own times and as such it expresses definite views. No reader will agree with everything we say. We have not tried to end debate; we have tried to clarify and broaden. We trust that our readers will be encouraged to seek for themselves a better understanding of where Canadians have been and what they have become. Pragmatic Idealism Costas Melakopides, 1998-06-02 Melakopides defines Canadian internationalism as pragmatic idealism: a balanced synthesis of idealism and pragmatism and demonstrates concretely how it reflects the principles, interests and values of the country's mainstream political culture. Focusing on Canada's record in the areas of peacekeeping and peacemaking, arms control and disarmament, foreign development assistance, human rights and ecological concerns, Melakopides reveals that at the heart of Canadian foreign policy are the concepts and the practice of moderation, communication, mediation, cooperation, caring and sharing. Pragmatic Idealism is an inspiring challenge to the assumption
