Canadian Literary Power:

Canadian Literary Power Frank Davey, 1994 A provocative look at the Canadian poetry and literary canon English Canadian literary periodicals Margaret Atwood Phyllis Webb Sinclair Ross Daphne Marlatt and other topics The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole Literary History of Canada Carl F. Klinck, Alfred G. Bailey, Claude Bissell, Roy Daniells, Northrop Frye, Desmond Pacey, 1976-12-15 Hailed as a landmark in Canadian literary scholarship when it was originally published in 1965 the Literary History of Canada is now being reissued revised and enlarged in three volumes This major effort of a large group of scholars working in the field of English language Canadian literature provides a comprehensive up to date reference work It has already proven itself invaluable as a source of information on authors genres and literary trends and influences It represents a positive attempt to give a history of Canada in terms of writings which deserve attention because of significant thought form and use of language Volume I comprises Parts I to III of the original edition and covers the years from the beginning of Canadian literature in English to about 1920 The contributors to this volume are David Galloway Victor G Hopwood Alfred G Bailey Fred Cogswell James and Ruth Talman Carl F Klinck Edith Gordon Roper Rupert Schieder S Ross Beharriell Brandon Conron Elizabeth Waterston Alec Lucas John A Irving A H Johnson A Vibert Douglas and Frank W Watt Ripostes Philip Marchand, 1998 Ripostes is a collection of essays on some salient features of the Canadian literary landscape a number of which were first published in the Toronto Star many of which appear in these pages for the first time Included are essays on Atwood Findley Ondaatje and Margaret Laurence as well as thematic explorations of Canadian literature such as an account of the demise of the Survival school of Canadian writing a look at the recent history of the Writers Union of Canada an examination of the role of fathers in Canadian fiction a study of the strange attraction of many of our writers to the occult and so on The tone is considered and critical rather than celebratory although the essays are respectful of the genuine achievements of Canadian literature in the past few decades They try to clear the air as it were of boosterism political correctness and other attitudes which hinder the appreciation and reception of good writing This is an honest re appraisal of Canadian literature undertaken at a time when we need no longer be overcome with relief and euphoria over the fact that some of our authors are now world famous or at least world famous in Hoboken New Jersey Avant-Garde Canadian Literature Gregory Betts, 2013-02-27 In Avant Garde Canadian Literature Gregory Betts draws attention to the fact that the avant garde has had a presence in Canada long before the country's literary histories have recognized and that the radicalism of avant garde art has been sabotaged by pedestrian terms of engagement by the Canadian media the public and the literary critics This book presents a rich body of evidence to illustrate the extent to which Canadians have been producing avant garde art since the start of the twentieth century Betts explores the radical literary ambitions and achievements of three different nodes of avant garde literary activity mystical revolutionaries from the 1910s to the 1930s Surrealists Automatists from the 1920s to the 1960s and Canadian Vorticists from the 1920s to the 1970s Avant Garde Canadian Literature offers an entrance into the vocabulary of the ongoing and primarily international debate surrounding the idea of avant gardism providing readers with a functional vocabulary for discussing some of the most hermetic and yet energetic literature ever produced in this country The Routledge Concise History of Canadian Literature Richard J. Lane, 2012-04-27 The Routledge Concise History of Canadian Literature introduces the fiction poetry and drama of Canada in its historical political and cultural contexts In this clear and structured volume Richard Lane outlines the history of Canadian literature from colonial times to the present key texts for Canadian First Peoples and the literature of Quebec the impact of English translation and the Canadian immigrant experience critical themes such as landscape ethnicity orality textuality war and nationhood contemporary debate on the canon feminism postcoloniality queer theory and cultural and ethnic diversity the work of canonical and lesser known writers from Catherine Parr Traill and Susanna Moodie to Robert Service Maria Campbell and Douglas Coupland Written in an engaging and accessible style and offering a glossary maps and further reading sections this guidebook is a crucial resource for students working in the field of Canadian Literature Literary History of Canada Carl F. Klinck, Alfred G. and literary trends and influences It represents a positive attempt to give a history of Canada in terms of writings which deserve attention because of significant thought form and use of language Volume 3 has been newly written for this edition of the History and covers the years from about 1960 to 1974 The contributors to this volume are Claude Bissell Desmond Pacey Lauriat Lane jr Michael S Cross Thomas A Goudge John Webster Grant John H Chapman William E Swinton Henry B Mayo Malcolm Ross Brandon Conron Clara Thomas Sheila A Egoff John Ripley William H New George Woodcock and Northrop Frye

English-Canadian Literature Thomas Guthrie Marquis,1913 Canadian Magazine of Politics, Science, Art & Literature ,1922 Is Canada Postcolonial? Laura Moss,2009-08-01 How can postcolonialism be applied to Canadian literature In all that has been written about postcolonialism surprisingly little has specifically addressed the position of Canada Canadian literature or Canadian culture Postcolonialism is a theory that has gained credence throughout the world it is be productive to ask if and how we as Canadians participate in postcolonial debates It is also vital to examine the ways in which Canada and Canadian culture fit into global discussions as our culture reflects how we interact with our neighbours allies and adversaries This collection wrestles with the problems of situating Canadian literature in the ongoing debates about culture identity and globalization and of applying the slippery term of postcolonialism to Canadian literature The topics range in focus from discussions of specific literary works to general theoretical contemplations The twenty three articles in this collection grapple with the recurrent issues of postcolonialism including hybridity collaboration marginality power resistance and historical revisionism from the vantage point of those working within Canada as writers and critics While some seek to confirm the legitimacy of including Canadian literature in the discussions of postcolonialism others challenge this very notion
