

Camp David Diaries

Volume I

Eleanor Roosevelt
1942 - 1945

I thought I should tell you how the idea for this diary got started.

Shortly after we arrived at the camp, Franklin and the guards went out to get the log of the land, while I explored the cabin. Down the hall there are four bedrooms. I decided to take the second one for my room. The first one is Franklin's and the two at the end of the hall are for guests.

I pecked in the corner closet in my room. Just as I was closing the closet door something on the shelf caught my eye. I reached up and found a small leather book on the top shelf. "My Diary" was written in beautiful calligraphy on the cover. (Isn't it neat?)
