Religious Activism on Campuses in Togo and Benin Frédérick Madore,2025-03-31 The interplay between religion and student activism at the universities of Abomey Calavi Benin and Lom Togo has often been overlooked although faith based organisations and student unions have coexisted since the 1970s Based on interviews with different generations of activists this book uncovers the neglected history of Christian and Muslim student associations on these campuses originally strongholds of leftist and secular ideologies It analyses the emergence of these groups under a Marxist Leninist regime in Benin and a one party dictatorship in Togo and explores the implications of growing religiosity for these public universities as secular institutions The history of these associations reveals the campus as a microcosm reflecting wider national socio political life while also highlighting the importance of translocal factors in shaping the internal dynamics of these groups Amidst the massification of university enrolments and rising graduate unemployment faith based associations have come to provide more than religious guidance Increasingly they offer a social curriculum providing a space for socialisation and a set of skills norms and moral values that complement the secular academic curriculum Advance ,1970

Critical Conversations about Religion Sachi Edwards,2016-10-01 Interfaith initiatives are increasingly prevalent on college and university campuses around the country In large part this trend responds both to ongoing religious violence throughout the world and to increasing religious tension in the United States As such these interfaith initiatives often attempt to bolster interfaith collaboration and increase awareness of different religious cultures identities beliefs and traditions In this book Edwards reviews the various goals and processes associated with the interfaith movement and offers both warnings and suggestions for those who are interested in pursuing an approach to interfaith dialogue that is oriented toward social justice In doing so this book fills a critical gap in academic literature surrounding the impact of religious identity and interfaith relations on pedagogy educational experiences and campus climates Through three descriptive case studies set in a large public university in the United States Edwards explores the use of Intergroup Dialogue as a pedagogical model for interfaith dialogue While the goal of this pedagogy is to increase student understanding of privilege oppression and social injustice pertaining to religious identity the cases in this book demonstrate how and why social justice oriented interfaith dialogue can be easily derailed and if so may potentially have harmful implications for religious minorities

Accordingly Edwards offers five necessary conditions for assuring that social justice oriented interfaith dialogue which Intergroup Dialogue is intended to be succeeds By focusing on the unique perspectives of four particular student participants all of whom have religious identities outside of the three dominant Abrahamic religions Edwards also highlights the experiences of those from religious identity groups that are the most overlooked and under represented in the discourse on interfaith dialogue     British Paperbacks in Print ,1985     The Rhetorical Dialogue: Contemporary Concepts and Cases John J. Makay,William Richard Brown,1972     Koreana Quarterly ,1970     Statistical Report New York (N.Y.). Police Department,1969     Education Inside the Library-media Center Richard W. Hostrop,1973
