Can The Palestinian Problem Be Solved Israeli Positions:

Can the Palestinian Problem be Solved? Alouph Hareven, 1983 EU Security Missions and the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Amr Nasr El-Din, 2016-12-19 This book explores and analyses the various factors that affected the formulation of the common EU policy towards the Middle East Peace Process MEPP as well as the specifics of the process by which the EU created EUPOL COPPS and EUBAM Rafah It answers two central questions firstly why and how did the EU decide to create and deploy these missions Secondly where do these two missions fit into the general EU approach to the conflict in the Middle East Based on confidential interviews with various actors in the process uniquely granted to the author it reveals the mechanics of decision making behind the scenes and argues that the EU decision to expand its role in the MEPP through the creation of the two missions was closely related to the EU's defined common interests in the Middle East Further it shows the missions were mainly the result of the EU's already established approaches to further its role in the international political arena This text will be of key interest to scholars and students of European foreign policy EU Politics Middle East politics and studies foreign policy analysis and more broadly to international relations Overcoming the Retributive Nature of the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Thomas L. Saaty, H. J. Zoffer, Luis G. Vargas, Amos Guiora, 2021-10-29 This book presents an interdisciplinary approach to conflict solution focusing on a very specific type of conflict retributive conflicts It is unique in the treatment of these and how relative measurement is used to find equilibrium solutions The authors present an alternative process to address the Israeli Palestinian conflict They do so in two ways that are different from past efforts The first is by formally structuring the conflict and the second is the manner in which discussions were conducted and conclusions drawn The approach will help create a solution and provide negotiators with a unique pathway to consider the thorny issues and corresponding concessions underlying the deliberations together with their implementation The Analytic Hierarchy Process AHP provides a way to conflict solution with the participation of negotiators for the parties It is a positive approach that makes it possible to reason and express feelings and judgments with numerical intensities to derive priorities With the assistance of panels of Israeli participants and Palestinian participants brought together in 2006 to 2017 AHP was applied for the first time in a group setting to the Palestinian Israeli conflict The process makes it clear that moderation in different degrees by both sides is essential to arrive at acceptable agreements on concessions proposed and agreed upon by both sides The Palestinians, 1987-10-01 The Palestinian people are today treated as strangers in their own country and as refugees in Arab States Despite their rule by outsiders Ottoman Turks and from 1917 the British Palestinian Arabs had always remained the majority population within Palestine From the late 19th century increasing numbers of Zionist settlers came driven by savage pogroms in Eastern Europe and later by the Nazi Holocaust Despite fervent and increasingly desperate protests by Arabs Palestine was partitioned by the UN in 1947 and much of the area the Arabs retained was subsequently lost to the new Israeli State in the wars of 1948-9 and 1967 Today over 2 million Palestinians live under Israeli administration both within Israel itself and in the Occupied Territories of the West Bank and Gaza Strip while another 2.8 million live beyond the borders of Palestine unable to return. Not only have many Palestinians been deprived of their homes and properties but they have been denied democratic rights and the hope of governing their own country. Lacking the right to determine their own future they have sometimes struck back in frustration and despair. Tile Palestinians the new Minority Rights Group report 24 not only outlines the history of the Palestinian people but their present situation inside and outside Israel. It gives a detailed account of Palestinian disadvantage under Israeli administration in the fields of law, local government, civic amenities, housing, education, health, employment, industry, agriculture, land ownership and settlement and water allocation and increasing suppression of dissent. Newly written by David McDowall with a Foreword by Dr Claire Palley, this report also contains maps, statistics and an appendix outlining the main political groups within the Palestinian movement today. A detailed and accurate account of the Palestinian people at a time when their sense of powerlessness has increased and when their position is especially precarious, this report is essential reading for all those who feel concern for the future of the Palestinians, Israel, the Middle East and world peace. Please note that the terminology in the fields of minority rights and indigenous peoples' rights has changed over time. MRG strives to reflect these changes as well as respect the right to self-identification on the part of minorities and indigenous peoples. At the same time, after over 50 years' work, we know that our archive is of considerable interest to activists and researchers. Therefore we make available as much of our back catalogue as possible while being aware that the language used may not reflect current thinking on these issues.

Ruled by wave after wave of conquerors through the centuries, Palestine is a land that is synonymous to many people with one of the three great monotheistic religions of the world but it has searched for decades for a stable identity as a nation state. From the revolt against the Turks in World War I, the Balfour Declaration, the U N Partition and the Arab Israeli War to today's episodic riots, police actions and seesaw summit meetings, Palestine has suffered almost every form of strife. The Historical Dictionary of Palestine is a handy fact-filled guide that brings together in one place coverage of the individuals, events, factions and institutions that have had a historical political or social significance in the shaping of the nascent Palestinian State. Entries purposely focus on Palestinians in the Occupied Territories and the autonomous areas of Jericho and the Gaza Strip but omit those Palestinians in Israel proper or those in exile. A detailed introduction and chronology delineate the tumultuous history of this developing nation state and the main text of the Dictionary offers biographies of the individuals involved. Several maps detail Palestine's shifting boundaries, a comprehensive bibliography is offered to aid further research and appendixes list its Declaration of Independence and Declaration of Principles It is certain to be an invaluable reference tool for all researchers on the Middle East Israelis Speak about Themselves and the Palestinians Larry L. Fabian, Zeev Schiff, 1977 In 1976 the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace a private and non profit American foundation invited a group of leading Israelis to spend a week discussing Israel and the Palestinian Arabs and the prospects for peace between them Neither the Israeli government nor the American government had a hand in initiating the meeting in shaping its agenda or in selecting the participants Israelis Speak the product of this meeting is a human document as well as a discussion about politics and it merits attention by all who care about the connection between peace in the Middle East and the deeply rooted issues dividing Israel and the Palestinians Cover page 4 A Mandate for Terror Harris Okun Schoenberg, 1989 President Reagan's Middle East peace initiative George Pratt Shultz, 1982 Current Policy United States. Department of State. Bureau of Public Affairs, 1982 Current Policy, 1981 Keeping Faith Jimmy Carter, 1995-07-01 Presents his personal view of life in the White House the crises he faced the people he worked with and the advice he received as president of the United States The Middle East, Abstracts and Index, 2000 The Jerusalem Journal of International Relations, 1991 Forthcoming, 1983 The Creative Woman, 1988 Jerusalem Thomas A.
