Heggie,1977      Curriculum Series Ontario Institute for Studies in Education,1980      Methodological Challenges in Nature-Culture and Environmental History Research Jocelyn Thorpe,Stephanie Rutherford,L. Anders Sandberg,2016-11-10 This book examines the challenges and possibilities of conducting cultural environmental history research today Disciplinary commitments certainly influence the questions scholars ask and the ways they seek out answers but some methodological challenges go beyond the boundaries of any one discipline The book examines how to account for the fact that humans are not the only actors in history yet dominate archival records how to attend to the non visual senses when traditional sources offer only a two dimensional non sensory version of the past how to decolonize research in and beyond the archives and how effectively to use sources and means of communication made available in the digital age This book will be a valuable resource for those interested in environmental history and politics sustainable development and historical geography      Global Realignments and the Canadian Nation in the Third Millennium Karin Ikaas,2010 With aggravating global realignments the dynamics and contradictions of a world risk society are looming ahead in the unfolding Third Millennium while globalization is gaining further steam To this bears witness a potpourri of often frightening geopolitical social cultural economic demographic ecological and other changes and challenges that gives substantial cause for concern about getting lost in a trans whatever sea of turmoil uncertainty and indeterminateness The resultant current backlash or rather renewed interest in the nation as a collective identity establishing category is an effort to gain some anchorage in ever more disintegrating times and proves especially those theoreticians wrong for whom the whole concept of the nation has worn off since long In 16 resourceful essays internationally distinguished Canadian and European experts from a variety of fields take a fresh look at these developments by focussing on one of the most fascinating multicultural and multifaceted nation state s in the world Canada in the Third Millennium The topics they discuss include among others Canada s difficult dissociation from Europe and the USA the reframing and reclaiming of the Canadian story the role of nations within the nation the efforts to transcend the nation pending geopolitical and geo ecological crises glocal issues and new wars Collectively the entries prove that Canada is a very progressive nation and opens up new perspectives for other collectives currently reassessing their national identities in a global environment Thus the book reaches well beyond the study of Canada and will be valuable to academics professionals teachers and students of various disciplines coping with the issue at stake as well as the general reader
