Engraved on Our Nations Wanda Wuttunee, Fred Wien, 2024-03-29 A testimony to Indigenous resilience in business Despite investments in nation building self autonomy and cultural resurgence Indigenous economic development has remained an underexplored and underestimated area of research Engraved on Our Nations overturns the discouraging deficit perspective too common in policy and academia and amplifies the largely undocumented history of successful Indigenous economic activity in Canada Following David Newhouse's overview of Indigenous economic history the authors of this collection illustrate how First Nation and Métis individuals and communities have met and overcome an array of challenges Case studies focus on First Nations from Membertou Nova Scotia to Tahltan British Columbia and Indigenous led enterprises like McDonald Brothers Electric Northwest Territories and Neechi Commons Manitoba Simultaneously celebrating Indigenous entrepreneurs and exploring concerns around sustainable development the book also asks can capitalism be Indigenized This first of its kind collection shares stories not only of entrepreneurial excellence and persistence but savvy leadership innovation and reciprocity In doing so Engraved on Our Nations provides hope to Indigenous business leaders youth and elected officials working on the front lines to improve economic conditions and achieve a good life for their communities

"His Dominion" and the "Yellow Peril" Jiwu Wang, 2010-02-25 A history of Chinese immigrants encounter with Canadian Protestant missionaries His Dominion and the Yellow Peril Protestant Missions to Chinese Immigrants in Canada 1859-1967 analyzes the evangelizing activities of missionaries and the role of religion in helping Chinese immigrants affirm their ethnic identity in a climate of cultural conflict Jiwu Wang argues that by working toward a vision of Canada that espoused Anglo Saxon Protestant values missionaries inevitably reinforced popular cultural stereotypes about the Chinese and widened the gap between Chinese and Canadian communities Those immigrants who did embrace the Christian faith felt isolated from their community and their old way of life but they were still not accepted by mainstream society Although the missionaries goal was to assimilate the Chinese into Anglo Saxon Protestant culture it was Chinese religion and cultural values that helped the immigrants maintain their identity and served to protect them from the intrusion of the Protestant missions Wang documents the methods used by the missionaries and the responses from the Chinese community noting the shift in approach that took place in the 1920s when the clergy began to preach respect for Chinese ways and sought to welcome them into Protestant Canadian life Although in the early days of the missions Chinese Canadians rejected the evangelizing to take what education they could from the missionaries as time went on and prejudice lessened they embraced the Christian faith as a way to gain acceptance as Canadians

Temagami's Tangled Wild Jocelyn Thorpe, 2012-02-03 Temagami's Tangled Wild traces the processes and power relationships through which the Temagami area of northeastern Ontario has become emblematic of Canadian wilderness In this sophisticated analysis Jocelyn Thorpe uncovers how struggles over meaning racialized and gendered identities and land have made Temagami a site of wild Canadian nature Despite the fact that the Teme Augama Anishnabai have for many generations understood the region as their homeland rather than as a wilderness the forestry and tourism industries as well as Canadian law have refused to acknowledge this claim Instead the concept of wilderness has been employed to aid in Aboriginal dispossession and to create a home for non Aboriginal Canadians on Native land An eloquent critique and engaging history Temagami s Tangled Wild challenges readers to acknowledge how colonial relations are embedded in our notions of wilderness and to reconsider our understanding of the wilderness ideal House of Commons
