Canada In The Fifties From The Archives Of Macleans:

Canada in the Fifties Michael Benedict,1999-01-01 Canada in the Fifties Michael Benedict,2000 Babylon Books Introduction by Pierre Berton Report on Canadian Archives and on the System of Keeping Public Records Public Archives of Canada,1886 The Fifties in America John C. Super,2005 Surveys the events and people of the United States and Canada from 1950 through 1959 Report on Canadian Archives Public Archives of Canada,1890 Canadian Books in Print ,2003 The Canadian Historical Review ,1920 Includes section Recent publications relating to Canada Report Concerning Canadian Archives Public Archives Canada,1885 Using Functional Analysis in Archival Appraisal Marcus C. Robyns,2014-07-02 The identification of recorded information with continuing value that documents corporate and cultural memory is one of the archivist s primary tasks and he she accomplishes this mission in part through the process of appraisal But does traditional archival appraisal based on the concepts of primary and evidential values effectively serve the needs of institutional archivists and records managers In an age of scarcity and the challenge of electronic records can archivists and records managers continue to rely upon a methodology essentially unchanged since the early 1950s Using Functional Analysis in Archival Appraisal A Practical and Effective Alternative to Traditional Appraisal Methodologies shows how archivists in other countries are already using functional analysis which offers a better more effective and imminently more practical alternative to traditional appraisal methodologies that rely upon an analysis of the records themselves From this book information professionals will learn what functional analysis is and how it is already used around the world its useful application for a variety of record types and media including print non textual electronic and born digital records how functional analysis provides an alternative to a hierarchical arrangement scheme based upon record groups sub groups and series that mimics the structure of an institution or organization a recommended process for the practical and effective implementation of functional analysis Encyclopedia of Library and Information Sciences John D. McDonald,Michael Levine-Clark,2017-03-15 The Encyclopedia of Library and Information Sciences comprising of seven volumes now in its fourth edition compiles the contributions of major researchers and practitioners and explores the cultural institutions of more than 30 countries This major reference presents over 550 entries extensively reviewed for accuracy in seven print volumes or online The new fourth edition which includes 55 new entire entries and 60 revised entries continues to reflect the growing convergence among the disciplines that influence information and the cultural record with coverage of the latest topics as well as classic articles of historical and theoretical importance Canadian Book Review Annual Joyce M. Wilson,2001 Report of the Work of the Public Archives ... Public Archives of Canada,1886 Captain Alex MacLean Don MacGillivray,2008-11-01 Alex MacLean was the inspiration for the title character in Jack London s bestselling novel The Sea Wolf Originally from Cape Breton MacLean sailed to the Pacific side of North America when he was twenty one and worked there for thirty five years as a sailor and sealer His achievements and escapades while in the Victoria fleet in the 1880s laid the foundation for his status as a folk hero But this biography reveals more than the construction of a legend Don MacGillivray opens a window onto the sealing dispute brought the United States and Britain to the brink of war with Canadian sealing interests frequently enmeshed in espionage scientific debate diplomatic negotiations and vexing questions of maritime and environmental law Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler, 2002-02 Communication History in Canada Daniel J. Robinson, 2004 A distinctive blend of history geography government economics and biculturalism meant that communication systems and the mass media evolved differently in Canada than in either the United States or Europe Bringing together twenty six articles that range in subject from colonial newspapers in the early 1800s to music television in the 1980s Communication History in Canada provides the historical foundation for a thorough contextual analysis of modern day media and communication in this country From Marshall McLuhan and Harold Innis to Mary Vipond and Will Straw the authors in this volume represent a wide cross section of disciplines including history communication studies sociology journalism political science and film studies Their essays are grouped in five sections Time Space Technology and Nation which explores the relationship between media society and human thought Postal Systems and Telecommunications which centres on the telegraph the telephone and computers Print Mass Media which describes the origins and diffusion of newspapers and magazines with a particular emphasis on commercialization through advertising and market research Broadcast Media which charts the rise of radio broadcasting in the inter war years and of television broadcasting from the 1950s through the 1980s and Cultural Industries which examines film and sound recording Where Race Does Not Matter Cecil Foster, 2005 Originally intended to be a white man's country Canada helped develop the prototype for the nation state that privileged the descendants of Western Europe and marginalized all others including those who were aboriginal to the land This is the prototype that also characterized apartheid South Africa Now thanks to the policies of Pierre Elliott Trudeau Canada has done an about face on race and is the world's first official multicultural country But race and ethnicity are still serious issues In Where Race Does Not Matter Cecil Foster one of Canada's leading intellectuals argues that Canada can leave a legacy to the world a legacy of true multiculturalism where all citizens are generally equal and race truly does not matter This brilliant polemic challenges the prevailing wisdom about racism and offers a model for the future Maclean's, 1961-07 Canada's national magazine Report of the Bureau of Archives for the Province of Ontario Ontario. Bureau of Archives, 1911 Personal Recordkeeping, 1996 Discusses the importance of archiving personal and corporate papers Sessional Papers Canada. Parliament, 1919 Report of the Dominion fishery commission on the fisheries of the province of Ontario 1893 issued as vol 26 no 7 supplement
