Canada The State Of The Federation 1996:

The Secession of Quebec and the Future of Canada Robert Andrew Young, 1998 Based on the premises that Quebecers vote for independence in a referendum and Canada accepts this result The Secession of Quebec and the Future of Canada is a timely examination of the implications of separation for Quebec and the rest of Canada Struggle for Quebec Robert Andrew Young, 1999 Young political science U of Western Ontario follows his analysis of the Quebec situation in The Secession of Quebec and the Future of Canada written in mid 1994 with an update of developments since then He describes the prelude to the 1995 referendum campaign on Quebec secession and analyzes the arguments deployed by federalists and sovereignists seeking to explain why the Yes forces gained ground in 1995 and almost won He then assesses the fallout of the referendum and describes how the sovereignists and federalists are maneuvering around the prospect of another referendum He provides predictions on what would happen after a Yes vote Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

School of Policy Studies, 1999 Canadian Political Culture(s) in Transition Hamish Telford, Harvey Lazar, 2002 Canada The State of the Federation 2000 01 probes beneath the surface to determine if the obvious changes the fractious federal party system the common sense revolution in government budgeting the re birth of the sovereignty movement in Quebec and the re assertion of Aboriginal claims are symptomatic of a shift in Canadian political culture Arguably political changes in Canada have been greater in the 1990s than in any other decade since Confederation but do these changes signify a shift in Canadian political culture Can we even speak of a Canadian political culture What are the consequences of these changes for the federation Are Canadians more or less united Are federal provincial relations better or worse What does the future hold The authors attempt to answer these questions through analyses of the federal party system politics in the provinces and regions and political dynamics in a number of issue areas including Aboriginal politics the Charter multiculturalism the rural urban cleavage and social policy Diplomatic Missions Queen's University (Kingston, Ont.). School of Policy Studies, Canadian Centre for Foreign Policy Development, 1998 Heads of missions represent Canada to the world Canada has 140 missions and offices abroad but the foreign policy literature in Canada has little to say about the role of ambassadors Even official reports do not articulate an explicit Canadian doctrine on the practice of diplomacy In Diplomatic Missions recent Canadian ambassadors and scholars of foreign policy examine the role of Canada's ambassadors in the context of a changing foreign ministry a changing state a new world order and rapidly evolving technologies of transportation and communications Nationalism and Globalization Kenneth McRoberts, 1997 Canadian Books in Print 2002 Edited by Butler Marian, Marian Butler, 2002-02 Containing more than 48000 titles of which approximately 4000 have a 2001 imprint the author and title index is extensively cross referenced It offers a complete directory of Canadian publishers available listing the names and ISBN prefixes as well as the street e mail and web addresses Security, Strategy and the Global Economics of Defence Production Queen's University (Kingston, Ont.). School of Policy Studies, 1999 As the recent fighting in Serbia illustrates the technology of modern warfare is in constant evolution with implications spanning a wide range of public policy areas from the broad dimensions of alliance strategy to the specific confines of defence investment production and trade For the past several years technological innovation in the arms industry of the world's leading states has been proceeding in relation to the phenomenon of globalisation in the civilian sector Although the combined impact of the postulated revolution in military affairs and the globalisation of industry has been felt in all Western states it has been of particular concern in two NATO countries Canada and the United Kingdom as each is located on the margins of a continental market in defence goods Both have established a set of privileged linkages and interests with this market although they have retained a certain strategic political and economic distance Security Strategy and the Global Economics of Defence

Production features contributions from a broad range of policy analysts and practitioners in Canada and the United Kingdom whose primary concern is to identify and analyse the major challenges that Ottawa and London will be facing in the coming decade. Among the issues and challenges considered are understanding the changing nature of threat and risk to security interests, devising appropriate means of harnessing and responding to technological change in warfare, and assessing the relative merits of regional defence industrial groupings as opposed to trans Atlantic arrangements. The contributors also discuss developments in policy respecting the procurement and export of arms as well as the enhancement of the quality of bilateral defence co operation and trade.
