Canadas Big House The Dark History Of The Kingston Penitentiary:

Canada's Big House Peter H. Hennessy, 1999-10-01 A report in 1833 by a committee of three respected Kingston colonials called for the construction of a limestone penitentiary on Hatter s Bay to the west of the town Their report contained these words of advice for its future governors shall be a place by every means not cruel and not affecting the health of the offender but shall be rendered so irksome and so terrible that during his lifetime he may dread nothing so much as a repetition of the punishment The obvious contradiction within this historical mandate of Canada s Big House has bedevilled the entire history of the jail Its original high moral purpose penitence through silent reflection drifted away into the foggy realm of official myth almost as soon as the first convicts arrived in 1835 This semi documentary study of the Kingston Penitentiary by a local writer and historian lays bare in cool prose the rapid descent from puritanical purpose to merely punitive management For the first 75 years repression was accepted as the norm even applauded by the local citizens some of the inmates and the political establishment Over the last hundred years repressive practices at Kingston Penitentiary have been publicized analyzed and increasingly denounced In the outcome the Big House at Kingston has become almost unmanageable What to do with it The question still hangs in the air

Historical Geographies of Prisons Karen Morin, Dominique Moran, 2015-06-12 This is the first book to provide a comprehensive historical geographical lens to the development and evolution of correctional institutions as a specific subset of carceral geographies This book analyzes and critiques global practices of incarceration regimes of punishment and their corresponding spaces of corrections from the eighteenth to twenty first centuries It examines individuals experiences within various regulatory regimes and spaces of punishment and offers an interpretation of spaces of incarceration as cultural historical artifacts The book also analyzes the spatial distributional geographies of incarceration particularly with respect to their historical impact on community political economic development and local geographies Contributions within this book examine a range of prison sites and the practices that take place within them to help us understand how regimes of punishment are experienced and are constructed in different kinds of ways across space and time for very different ends The overall aim of this book is to help understand the legacies of carceral geographies in the present The resonances across space and time tell a profound story of social and spatial legacies and as such offer important insights into the prison crisis we see in many parts of the world today

Murder on the Inside Catherine Fogarty, 2021-04-13 Shortlisted for the Speaker s Book Award Shortlisted for The Brass Knuckles Award for Best Nonfiction Crime Book You have taken our civil rights we want our human rights On April 14 1971 a handful of prisoners attacked the guards at Kingston Penitentiary and seized control making headlines around the world For four intense days the prisoners held the guards hostage while their leaders negotiated with a citizens committee of journalists and lawyers drawing attention to the dehumanizing realities of their incarceration including overcrowding harsh punishment and extreme isolation But when another group of convicts turned their pent up rage towards some of the weakest prisoners tensions inside the old stone walls erupted with tragic consequences As heavily armed soldiers prepared to regain control of the prison through a full military assault the inmates were finally forced to surrender Murder on the Inside tells the harrowing story of a prison in crisis against the backdrop of a pivotal moment in the history of human rights Occurring just months before the uprising at Attica Prison the Kingston riot has remained largely undocumented and few have known the details yet the tense drama chronicled here is more relevant today than ever A gripping account of the standoff and the efforts for justice and reform it inspired Murder on the Inside is essential reading for our times Includes 24 pages of photographs Hard Time Ted McCoy,2012 The success and failure of prison reform and the corresponding social history of punishment in Canada Snatched! Susan Goldenberg,2004-09-22 In 1934 fifty three year old beer tycoon John Sackville Labatt was kidnapped from his Lake Huron summer home and held ransom for three days His captors a group of ex rumrunners desperate in the days following prohibition and the Great Depression were hoping for a big payday This bizarre true crime story traces the abduction through to the trials of the abductors From a heavily populated hideout to a case of mistaken identity follow the story of Labatt the first person in Canada to be kidnapped for high ransom On the Lam Lorna Poplak,2025-10-14 Fascinating stories of the age old tug of war between prisons struggling to keep inmates inside and escapees desperate to get out A convict who returned to the prison he had recently escaped from in a vain attempt to foment a mass breakout a murderer on the run who veered from folk hero to persona non grata after killing a police dog a fugitive from the United States who was seized in Canada after being featured on America s Most Wanted a repeat escapee who shot himself preferring death to recapture a serial killer on the prowl in a small community these are just a few of the felons whose prison break escapades continue to enthrall and terrify Along with probing the origins structure and shortcomings of a variety of historic and contemporary correctional institutions On the Lam brings into sharp focus the attempts sometimes successful occasionally deadly of masterminds tricksters scoundrels and innocents to claw their way to freedom The Dundurn Group The Dundurn Group, Ontario History ,2000 Vols 29 include the society s Report 1931 32 except 1938 39 1939 40 which were issued separately The Canadian Historical Review ,2000 America, History and Life ,2001 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2001 Canadian Book Review Annual Joyce M.
