

The background of the cover is a photograph of a large industrial facility, likely a mine or processing plant, at night. A tall, white, lattice-structured conveyor or hoist system extends diagonally from the bottom left towards the top center. The top of the structure is illuminated with bright green and white lights. The sky is a deep purple and blue. In the lower right, there are other industrial buildings and structures, some with yellow lights. The overall scene is industrial and dramatic.
