Canadian Politics in the 21st Century Michael S. Whittington, Glen Williams, 2004 Canadian Politics in the 21st Century Michael S. Whittington, Glen Williams, 2000 Reinventing Canada M. Janine Brodie, Linda Trimble, 2004

Comprised of 23 articles by leading Canadian scholars this book provides a comprehensive supplementary text for Canadian politics courses The articles in this compilation discuss the major issues that define Canada s current political culture including globalization race disability immigration environment and foreign policy This reader features timely selections that analyze Canada s North as well as issues of security and immigration in Canada after September 11th Canadian Public Administration in the 21st Century Charles Conteh, Ian Roberge, 2013-08-13 The demands associated with good governance and good public management are at an all time high Yet the discipline of Canadian public administration is in flux and the time is ripe for an open and frank analysis of its state and possibilities Canadian Public Administration in the 21st Century brings together emerging voices in Canadian public administration to consider current and future prospects in the discipline A new wave of scholars has brought new energy ambition and perspectives to the field In this book they take stock and build on established traditions and current trends focusing on emerging or reemerging issues and challenges The book identifies and analyzes the emergent research agenda in public administration focusing on Canada to illustrate key concepts frameworks and issues It consists of three thematically organized sections exploring processes structures and principles of Canadian public administration It addresses the broad emergent trend in processes of service delivery or policy implementation generally referred to as the new public governance It then critically examines the structural and institutional dimensions of Canadian public administration in light of recent directions in the field A complete exploration of new principles methods values and ethics in Canadian public administration research and practice rounds out the coverage Bringing together emerging scholars the book bridges the gap between established analytical traditions and novel theoretical and methodological approaches in the field It proposes a new more interdisciplinary public administration increasingly focused on governance and not solely on management The Canada-US Border in the 21st Century John B. Sutcliffe, William P. Anderson, 2018-11-02 Borders are critical to the development and survival of modern states offer security against external threats and mark public policy and identity difference At the same time borders and borderlands are places where people ideas and economic goods meet and intermingle The United States Canada border demonstrates all of the characteristics of modern borders and epitomises the debates that surround them This book examines the development of the US Canada border provides a detailed analysis of its current operation and concludes with an evaluation of the border s future The central objective is to examine how the border functions in practice presenting a series of case studies on its operation This book will be of interest to scholars of North American integration and border studies and to policy practitioners who will be particularly interested in the case studies and what they say about the impact of border reform

21st Century Sociology: A Reference Handbook Clifton D. Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2007 Publisher Description

Quebec Cinema in the 21st Century Michael Gott, Thibaut Schilt, 2024-02-06 This collection of ten chapters and three original interviews with Quebecois filmmakers focuses on the past two decades of Quebec cinema and takes an in depth look at a primarily Montreal based filmmaking industry whose increasingly diverse productions continue to resist the hegemony of Hollywood and to exist as a visible and successful hub of French language and ever more multilingual cinema in North America This volume picks up where Bill Marshall's 2001 Quebec National Cinema ends to investigate the inherently global nature of Quebec's film industry and cinematic output since the beginning of the new millennium Through their analyses of contemporary films Une colonie Avant les rues Bon cop bad cop Les Affamés Tom la ferme Uvanga among others directors including Xavier Dolan Denis Côté Sophie Desrues Chloé Robichaud Jean Marc Vallée and Monia Chokri and genres such as the buddy comedy and the zombie film our authors examine the growing tension between Quebec cinema as a national cinema and as an art form that reflects the transnationalism of today's world a new form of fluidity of individual experiences and an increasing on screen presence of Indigenous subjects both within and outside the borders of the province The book concludes with specially conducted interviews with filmmakers Denis Chouinard Bachir Bensaddek and Marie Hélène Cousineau who provide their views and insights on contemporary Quebec filmmaking
