Workplace Learning John Bratton, Jean C. Helms Mills, Peter Sawchuk, 2003-12-01 Published Under the Garamond Imprint This innovative book is concerned with the power relations complexities and contradictions in the paid workplace Workplace learning is not value free or politically neutral and cannot be studied independently of the political economy of work Workplace Learning is part of a growing body of work that offers an alternative to mainstream approaches to workplace learning recognizing that power relations politics and conflicts of interest all shape learning The authors emphasize the lived experiences of working people avoiding prescriptive accounts and uncritical Human Resource Development views Comments Here is a map through contested and largely uncharted terrain from the foreword by D Arcy Martin

Arctic Front Ken S. Coates, P. Whitney Lackenbauer, William R. Morrion, Greg Poelzer, 2010-09-11 A hard hitting timely and provocative book about the history and future of the Canadian Arctic With passion and sharp words Arctic Front confronts Canada's longstanding neglect of the Far North and outline what needs to be done to protect our national interest Through a lively and engaging history of the region Arctic Front reveals how Canadians and their governments have ignored this region for generations expanded Canadian sovereignty over the past hundred years by reacting to other countries challenges become the least effective of all Circumpolar nations in responding to the needs of the Arctic neglected our obligations to the North including a failure to capitalize on the human and economic resources of this vast land or to establish a presence that would make any foreign claims to offshore resources inconceivable As global warming continues to melt the ice in the Northwest Passage and the competition for northern resources heats up Canada the authors warn will be forced to defend this area from a position of grave weakness Our leaders need to take action today blending defence and development to complete Canadian nation building in this fragile region An energetic and engaging collaboration by four of Canada's leading Northern specialists Arctic Front is a clarion call to all Canadians about our endangered Arctic region challenging the country to step away from the symbols and myth making of the past and toward the urgent political environmental and economic realities of the 21st century
