Canadian Novel Here And Now:

The Canadian Novel John Moss, 1983-02 A collection of essays about contemporary Canadian novels by Margaret Atwood Robertson Davies Margaret Laurence Alice Munro Mordechai Richler Rudy Wiebe as edited by professor of English at the University of Ottawa John Moss The Canadian Novel: Here and now John Moss, 1978 The Crafting of Chaos Hildegard Kuester, 1994 In this study of the Canadian novelist Margaret Laurence recent narratological models provide the theoretical framework for a textual analysis that aims at complementing previous thematic critiques The chief focus is on The Stone Angel and The Diviners which the conclusion then presents in the context of the other novels in Laurence's Manawaka cycle Consideration of the published works is rounded off with genetic comparison of the novelist's typescript drafts and an evaluation of the manuscript notes kept in the archives of McMaster and York Universities The central structural principle of The Stone Angel is its dovetailing of past and present scenes Temporal arrangement reflecting the frequency and duration of Hagar's memories reveals the hold of memory over the central character and her attempts to suppress her fear of mortality Hagar as narrator manipulates character presentation and description to her own advantage In a basically oppositional structure her need for control is reflected in the neat ordering of the narrative The verbal texture of the novel serves to establish a value system that insists on the superiority of imported culture over Western Canadian forms The Diviners shares a number of narrative similarities with The Stone Angel but the latter's formal rigidity has yielded by the time Laurence writes her last novel to the concept of multiplicity characters time planes perspectives and narrative voices including metafictional commentaries Textual coherence is secured via narrative strategies including typography generational paradigms repetition parallelism intertextuality and tropological patterning that render the novel readable and present experience as ordered in a time of cultural flux and personal crisis Here & Now Clark Blaise, 1977 Marxism and 20th-Century English-Canadian Novels John Z. Ming Chen, Yuhua Ji, 2015-06-09 This monograph is the first academic work to apply a neo Marxist approach to 20th century Canadian social realist novels pursuing a refreshingly neo Marxist approach to such issues as Bakhtinian notions of the novelistic form and dialogism as applied to Canadian socio political novels influenced by various socialisms socialist feminist concerns economic and sexual politics and the genre of social realism In so doing it demonstrates that Marxist socialism is as relevant today as it was in the 1930s just as social realist novels continue to thrive as a critique of capitalism Readers will find valuable insights into the social significance formal innovations moral sensitivity aesthetic enrichment and ideological complexity of Canadian social realist novels Canadian Writers and Their Works Robert Lecker, Jack David, Ellen Quigley, 1983 Margaret Atwood Kathryn VanSpanckeren, Jan Garden Castro, 1988 A prolific writer and versatile social critic Canadian novelist and poet Margaret Atwood has recently published Bluebeard's Egg short stories Interlunar poetry and The Handmaid's Tale a critically acclaimed best selling novel This international collection of essays evaluates the complete body of her work both the acclaimed fiction and the innovative poetry The critics represented here American Australian and Canadian address Atwood s handling of such themes as feminism ecology the gothic novel and the political relationship between Canada and the United States The essays on Atwood s novels introduce the general reader to her development as a writer as she matures from a basically subjective poetic vision seen in Surfacing and The Edible Woman to an increasingly engaged political stance exemplified by The Handmaid s Tale Other essays examine Atwood s poetry from her transformation of the Homeric model to her criticisms of the United States relationship with Canada The last two critical essays offer a unique view of Atwood through an investigation of her use of the concept of shamanism and through a presentation of eight of her vivid watercolors The volume ends with Atwood presenting her own views in an interview with Jan Garden Castro and in a conversation between Atwood and students at the University of Tampa Florida

Here and Now, 1948 The Canadian Novel in the Twentieth Century George Woodcock, 1975

Canadian Bookman, 1927 The Child Hero in the Canadian Novel Theresia Quigley, 1991 Who's who in Canadian Literature, 1992 Mordecai Richler and His Works Kerry McSweeney, 1984 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1995 Here and Now Gilbert H.
