COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This seminar course explores selected themes and issues in Canadian rural society from 1800 to 1950. The seminar readings reflect the interdisciplinary and revisionist nature of the new rural history. Special emphasis will be placed upon the methods and sources used by other scholars as we attempt to acquire a deeper understanding of the role of agriculture within the national economic and political system, the mechanisms of social change and family strategies.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS or “UDDER NECESSITIES”:

SEMINARS:

PARTICIPATION: There is no text for this course. The readings are from a variety of sources and are available on reserve unless stated otherwise. Weekly participation of a high quality is very important as each seminar is worth approximately 4.5 % of your final grade. You are expected to read all assigned readings for each seminar and will be graded on the quality of your discussion. You will develop your analytical skills as you critically evaluate individual readings and relate these to wider themes in the literature and your own diary project. At the same time, your knowledge of the field and its historiography will deepen as you engage with classic works and the latest scholarship.

LEADERSHIP: Each of you will lead a 1 ½ hour seminar. This will develop leadership, teaching and communication skills.

Planning COLLEGE ROYAL EXHIBIT

Our class has been asked to do an exhibit of the work done, past and current, in HIST4620 for the College Royal Openhouse, Saturday 17 March and Sunday 18 March. We will be planning this event in seminars starting week one and continuing throughout the semester. Your contribution to planning this exhibit and your hosting that weekend will form part of your seminar grade.
