part of the continuing teminist effort to discover what it means to be women and Canadians Rethinking Canada examines key developments in Canadian history from the founding of New France to the present while at the same time highlighting the distinctive texture of women s experiences and identities This decidedly non traditional reconstruction of Canadian history focuses on the lives struggles and contributions of women enlarging and diversifying the picture of the past found in conventional historical accounts Of the 26 readings in this volume 16 are new Subjects range from the impact of colonialism on gender relations in Aboriginal societies to the immigration of Japanese picture brides in early twentieth century British Columbia to transnational political alliances formed by Canadian and Mexican women in response to NAFTA Other topics include sexuality workforce trends gender and public policy and much more The selections aim above all to bring diverse and marginalized groups of women out of the historical shadows The voices of First Nations women women of colour and immigrant women for example resound clearly in this volume An informative introduction to each reading situates the article in its specific historical and historiographical context and each introduction concludes with questions designed to stimulate
