Diversifying the Space of Podcasting Tegan R. Bratcher, Alexis Romero Walker, 2024-12-15 As the podcast studies field continues to gain momentum both within academia and in practice scholars have been mapping and exploring the podcasting landscape from a variety of perspectives This edited volume highlights the diverse spaces that podcasts embody and create amplifying the unique and understudied perspectives and voices of podcasting Through a multitude of interdisciplinary approaches contributors explore the various cultural racial and identity based markers undergirding the richness of the platform and argue that by understanding diverse content and content creators we enrich the field of podcast studies as a whole Scholars of media communication cultural podcast and critical race studies among others will find this book to be particularly useful

T for Tolerance Katherine Blessan, 2024-01-28 Truth is dangerous Society has taught me that and I m still learning today painstakingly walking the jagged edge of this knowledge It s Britain 2041 Freedom of speech is no longer a legal right and the concept of tolerance has been twisted When teenager Sathya boldly shares her beliefs she is betrayed by her twin sister and has her own rights stripped away Surrounded by danger Sathya must battle her own doubts as well as the determination of the thought police to break her Will she hold onto truth against all odds and find freedom

Path to Singularity J. Craig Wheeler, 2024-11-19 In a rapidly changing world are we on the brink of creating technology that outpaces our ability to control it Astrophysicist J Craig Wheeler former president of the American Astronomical Society takes a critical look at the technological advances shaping our future From artificial intelligence to genetic engineering Wheeler explores how these innovations are interconnected and the potential they hold for humanity s evolution He warns of a future where autonomous machines outsmart us and genetic modifications challenge our very essence With thought provoking insights into the ethical dilemmas we face Wheeler stresses the importance of staying informed and proactive Key Questions Raised by Wheeler Will there be jobs for those willing to work in a future dominated by automation How might social media companies manipulate our decisions potentially stripping us of free will Could AI influence or even dictate our voting behaviors If widespread mental connectivity becomes a reality could we see the emergence of a collective consciousness that erases individuality Have we exhausted Earth's resources and is population control necessary What implications arise if we solve aging How will society adapt to the challenges of perpetual youth What are the realistic prospects of migrating to space as Earth becomes increasingly inhospitable Our decisions today will determine if we control technology or if it controls us Through an engaging narrative Wheeler not only outlines the challenges but also offers practical advice on how we can retain control over our technological destiny Includes a Foreword by Neil DeGrasse Tyson Podcasting Made Simple Daniel Larson, 2020-09-28 If you're looking for a step by step walkthrough on how to start a podcast right from the ground with no previous experience then keep reading The medium of podcasting and the personal nature of it the relationship you build with your listeners and the relationship they have with you they could be just sitting there chuckling and listening there's nothing like that Marc Maron Podcasting is the expressional medium with therapeutic value we've been missing in our lives for decades Luckily popularity has been growing exponentially over the last few years did you know the number of Americans who are weekly podcast listeners over the last 7 years has tripled Let alone a 24% increase in the UK from 2018 2019 Although there's never been a better time to get into podcasting with all the contradicting and often false information scattered all over the internet it's no wonder why so many people often struggle to find a starting point when there's so many conflicting views on what the best quality equipment is what launch strategy should be used and even editing In fact it can even create the illusion that starting a podcast is a daunting and time consuming process You might be reluctant to commit to something you lack both knowledge and experience in or you're worried that when you do make that leap there'll be no one on the other side listening Maybe you're skeptical of whether you'll be able to get guests on as a newbie with no name to yourself In Podcasting Made Simple you will discover The X factor that leaves listeners craving their next fix of your content The secret to creating an immersive parasocial relationship with your audience Why trying to monetize incorrectly can actually ruin your chances of turning your hobby to an income Why many podcasters advertisement and promotion actually repels potential listeners How to create a loveable personal brand through emotional familiarity The simple straight forward guide to recording and editing equipment recommendations included 5 simple tricks to make postproduction a breeze How to choose and execute the launch strategy that's right for you Why over half of podcasts are given up on by 6 months down the line How to format the perfect email that will get sponsors running your way even if you have a low listenership Unique ways to start attracting guests and become an authoritative figure The pre guest ritual that guarantees a free flowing interview The single most important voice technique that you can use to differentiate your show from competitors This digestible guide is made for people who have no experience so yes this will work for you even if you've never spoken into a microphone Even if you're not a technology guru and have no presence on social media Even if you have an extremely busy schedule and a low budget Even if you think your content ideas are absolutely absurd and no one will listen Even if there are thousands of podcasts similar to yours already published and you have no marketing experience If you re ready to start your podcasting journey then scroll up and click the Add to Cart button now Podcasting For Dummies Tee Morris,Evo Terra,2005-11-07
