Norbert Elias and Human Interdependencies Thomas Salumets,2001 Norbert Elias 1897 1990 author of the modern classic The Civilizing Process was one of the most fascinating scientists of the twentieth century In Norbert Elias and Human Interdependencies leading scholars from Europe the United States and Canada introduce evaluate and apply Elias s achievements and explore the interdependence of individuals in an increasingly global society While the opposing paradigms of globalization and fragmentation compete in often bloody and destructive ways in the world today this book convincingly reminds us of the importance of finding out more about the complex and changing ways in which we are connected The authors demonstrate that the more we understand our connectedness and deal with its consequences the less dependent and helpless we become The critical multidisciplinary perspectives they offer cover a wide range of subjects from the world wide web to medieval poetry nations and gender cancer narratives and money emotion management and the financial markets and the American civilizing process and the repression of shame The contributions bear witness to Elias s innovative achievements while the authors continue his stunning explorations extending them into other areas of the humanities and the sciences and presenting their own wide ranging and penetrating insights into our mutual dependence Contributors are Jorge Ardití SUNY Buffalo Godfried Van Benthem Van Den Bergh emeritus Erasmus University Rotterdam Reinhard Blomert Humboldt University Germany and Karl Franzens University Austria Stephen Guy Bray University of Calgary Thomas M Kemple University of British Columbia Hermann Korte emeritus University of Hamburg Germany Helmut Kuzmics University of Graz Austria Stephen Mennell National University of Ireland Thomas Salumets Thomas J Scheff emeritus University of California in Santa Barbara Ulrich C Teucher University of British Columbia Annette Treibel Pedagogical University of Karlsruhe and Cas Wouters Utrecht University Netherlands New Realities ,1986 Reconstructing Illness Anne Hunsaker Hawkins,1999 Serious illness and mortality those most universal unavoidable and frightening of human experiences are the focus of this pioneering study which has been hailed as a telling and provocative commentary on our times As modern medicine has become more scientific and dispassionate a new literary genre has emerged pathography the personal narrative concerning illness treatment and sometimes death Hawkins s sensitive reading of numerous pathographies highlights the assumptions attitudes and myths that people bring to the medical encounter One factor emerges again and again in these case studies the tendency in contemporary medical practice to focus primarily not on the needs of the individual who is sick but on the condition that we call disease Pathography allows the individual person a voice one that asserts the importance of the experiential side of illness and thus restores the feeling thinking experiencing human being to the center of the medical enterprise Recommended for medical practitioners the clergy caregivers students of popular culture and the general reader Reconstructing Illness demonstrates that only when we hear both the doctor s and the patient s voice will we have a medicine that is truly human The Middle Way ,1992-05 The Cumulative Book Index ,1989 A world list of books in the English language Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 Reconnecting the Healing Circle Jo Ann Lordahl,1993 First Person Mortal Lucy Bregman,Sara Thiermann,1995 In First Person Mortal Lucy Bregman and Sara Thiermann interpret the autobiographical narratives of C S Lewis Simone de Beauvoir Gilda Radnor and many others as attempts by deeply thoughtful individuals to wrest meaning from situations that often seem to defy even mock human comprehension The authors consider a variety of issues recurring in these narratives theories of autobiography patients rights and medical ethics modern society s emphasis on expressive individualism the genderedness of mortal experience the destruction of the body in a culture prizing physical beauty the loss of the self and personal identity and the ways people use religion or spirituality to interpret their experiences Drs Bregman and Thiermann conclude that in a society lacking a public normative understanding of death and dying the autobiographical genre is uniquely appropriate to our quest for meaning Whitaker's Book List ,1987 Days with Uncle God-Momma Francis L. Gross,1995 This captivating journal of a married man s retreat in the Texas wilderness and other spiritual adventures is dedicated to all the guys who would be silent to all the men who would be spiritual and still remain men and finally and most importantly to the wild men in the world who think one can be wild and holy at the same time Honest touching funny and wise here is a book of male spirituality at its best BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Memoirs of the Soul Nan Phifer,2002 Memoirs of the Soul teaches readers how to write about the times of wonder in their lives the sources of their strength their creativity resilience and moments of personal transformation Unlike traditional memoir writing which focuses on retelling the events of one s life this book will help readers recognize and explore the spiritual aspects of themselves their inner lives their creativity and resilience Although the word spiritual means different things to different people Phifer associates it with times when readers have experienced particular states of grace mercy compassion reverence awe and intuitive knowing a connection to
