Brower, 2025-08-19 French colonization dismantled Algerian names Under the occupation that began in 1830 not only were Algerian towns and streets renamed in honor of French figures but personal names were forced to follow French conventions and norms Colonial authorities simplified and transformed Algerian names to suit their administrative and legal purposes crudely transcribing and transliterating Arabic and Berber They imposed a two part name and surname model that stripped away the extended family ties and social context inherent to precolonial naming practices This groundbreaking history of personal names in nineteenth century Algeria sheds new light on the symbolic violence of renaming and the relationship between language and colonialism Benjamin Claude Brower traces the changes Algerians personal names suffered during the colonial era and the consequences for individuals and society France s imposition of new names he argues destabilized Algerians sense of self and place in the community distorted local identities and compromised institutions such as the family Drawing on previously unstudied records Brower examines different northwestern African naming traditions and how colonialism changed them With the aid of literary and critical theory he develops new insights into the name and its relationship to power and subjectivity A rigorous theoretical and historical account of symbolic violence The Colonization of Names unveils many unseen forms of harm under colonial rule List of Subject Headings for Information File, with Introduction & a List which Supplements the Information File, of 119 Important Reference Books Containing Current Information Newark Public Library,1917 South African Legal Dictionary, Containing Most of the English, Latin and Dutch Terms, Phrases and Maxims Used in Roman-Dutch and South African Legal Practice, Together with Definitions Occurring in the Statutes of the South African Colonies William Henry Somerset Bell,1910 The African Book Publishing Record ,2005 Harvard African Studies ,1918 Dictionary of Commemorative Plant Generic Names Sudhir Chandra,1992 Rules for a printed dictionary catalogue Charles Ammi Cutter,1891 The African Studies Companion Hans M.
