Farewell to Arms Charles M. Oliver, 2005 Discusses American writer Ernest Hemingway and his novel A Farewell to Arms Presents the background of the work the history of its writing the reception to it and its reputation F. Scott Fitzgerald's Tender is the Night Matthew Joseph Bruccoli, George Parker Anderson, 2003 Provides resources for a fuller understanding of Fitzgerald's masterpiece It assembles and organizes evidence not otherwise available in one place allowing readers to more fully comprehend reading this masterpiece Discusses the impact of Fitzgerald's drinking during the time he worked on this novel and the final version in which he re ordered the story in straight chronological order that was posthumously published in 1951 The Early Poetry of Charles Wright Robert D. Denham, 2009-01-27 This companion covers Charles Wright's first two trilogies Country Music 1982 and The World of the Ten Thousand Things 1990 providing biographical details information on Wright's sources and influences and historical notes. It pays special attention to the way that Wright's poems work together and the links that are formed between them. While each poem is given its own commentary, the author argues that they work together in a concentrated whole to document a man's spiritual journey. Twentieth-century American Nature Writers Roger Thompson, J. Scott Bryson, 2003. Essays on distinctly American nature writers from the earliest to the most recent that have consistently sought to convey both their wonder at the natural world and their individual personal experiences within it. The Brontës Susan B. Taylor, 2008. This award-winning multi-volume series is dedicated to making literature and its creators better understood and more accessible to students and interested readers while satisfying the standards of librarians, teachers, and scholars. Dictionary of Literary Biography provides reliable information in an easily comprehensible format while placing writers in the larger perspective of literary history. Dictionary of Literary Biography systematically presents career biographies and criticism of writers from all eras and all genres through volumes dedicated to specific types of literature and time periods. This is the first one-volume reference book to organize and discuss literature by topic rather than alphabetical order, providing information in a reader-friendly format. American Short-story Writers Since World War II. Patrick Meanor, Joseph McNicholas, 2001. Focuses on how the declining market for short story writers after World War II saw the migration of these writers to universities where they not only continued to write but established creative writing classes that would in turn inspire and develop new generations of writers of various genres. Twentieth-century Norwegian Writers Tanya Thresher, 2004. Presents biographies and criticism of some of the most influential Norwegian writers of the twentieth century, producing a representative cross-section of the Norwegian literary environment with writers of various decades, movements, and genres. Preference has been given to authors whose works have been translated into English. American Philosophers, 1950-2000 Philip Breed Dematteis, Leemon B. McHenry, 2003. Essays on American philosophers engaged with philosophical topics; focuses on the rise of analytic philosophy as the dominant philosophical movement in the English-speaking world for most of the twentieth century. Also covers libertarianism, a political philosophy that holds that individuals are the sole legitimate owners of their own minds and bodies and that they should be free to do as they please. Nobel Prize Laureates in Literature, 2007. A biographical/bibliographical guide to the writers who have received the Nobel Prize in Literature. Provides entries for each Nobel Prize laureate. Entries also include the Nobel Prize in Literature presentation speech for the corresponding year and the banquet speech given by the Nobel Prize laureate. The Humanities Ron Blazek, Elizabeth Smith Aversa, 2000.
