Dictionary of Marine Artists Dorothy E. R. Brewington, 1982 More than 50 years ago Dorothy and Marion Brewington began their search to identify the world's marine artists In convenient dictionary form the results of this monumental task have been published jointly by the Peabody Museum of Salem Massachusetts and Mystic Seaport Museum Alphabetical entries offer information on the careers of 3 074 American European Chinese and Japanese artists The emphasis is upon the obscure semi professional pierhead painters of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries not found in standard references Living artists are not included This is an essential reference for art scholars collectors and libraries

The Dictionary of Sea Painters of Europe and America Edward H. H. Archibald, 2000 The third edition of The Dictionary of Sea Painters further enhances its stature as the pre eminent reference guide in its field Marine painting as befits the historical importance of its subject has a rich and varied heritage The range stretches from the heroics of great artists such as Turner to the humble yet finely detailed harbour paintings intended for master mariners The range of work between these two extremes is widely collected and admired and the dictionary satisfies an ever growing demand for authoritative information from collectors dealers and auction houses Other sections of the book offer a wealth of further information There are detailed drawings of the stems and sterns of important ships and maritime flags are illustrated in colour an asset for the purposes of dating and identification
