Seeing the radiant face of Ma Anandamayi and hearing her laughter you guess that she is an incarnation of Joy Touched by the caress of Her glance you know that her heart is overflowing with love for all beings Listening to Her teaching so simple and clear you understand that She is in possession of all Wisdom But one cannot say whether it is Joy Love or Wisdom that is the source of all this for with Her all there are inextricably and indissolubly mingled one could not exist without the others The joy which Ma anandmayi lives is not that which we know in worldly life where pleasure and pain hope regret and disillusionment attraction and repulsion follow on each other's heels born one of another Nor is it an egocentric calm of stoic rigidity that erects around itself an rampart of indifference Hers is an overflowing irrepressible joy that expresses itself in gaiety that knows no obstacles because it is deeply rooted in the Absolute beyond the dualities of good and evil of I and not I of pleasant and unpleasant because its unshakable base is Love and Wisdom      Ancient Malwa and the Vikramāditya Tradition Dineschandra Sircar, 1969 Description This book comprises of Carmichael lectures delivered at the University of Calcutta and is shining example of what scholarship of an exceptional order can achieve combined with an imaginative insight into the working of historical processes The apparently disconnected threads of a forgotten history have been woven into a coherent and meaningful narratives being projected on a broad canvas on which is depicted a Millennium's development of ancient Indian political scenes and strategy with which the fate of Malwa was inextricably bound up Professor Sircar gives a refreshingly new orientation to the age long controversy centering on the identity of the original Vikramaditya and the circumstances connected with the introduction of the Vikrama era and formulates certain definitive conclusions which for the ability shown confused masses of legends and traditions and conflicting testimonies of diverse sorts bear the unmistakable stamp of an illuminating and convincing exposition      The Concept of Deva Cornelius Wilhelmus Josef van der
