Women's Trade Union League broke from the pacifist tradition to advocate American aid for the Allied cause. Focusing on the conflict in Europe, Paton Walsh shows how these women grasped the implications of the Lend Lease program for America's entry into the war but supported it nevertheless. By late 1941 the Women's Division of the Fight for Freedom Committee had been established no longer merely advocating aid to Britain to keep American boys out of battle; this organization supported direct American involvement in the war as a means of stopping Nazi oppression. While most historians have focused on women's pacifism, Paton Walsh connects women more directly to world events and shows how those interventionists reformulated maternalist ideas to justify and explain their beliefs. Our War Too is a story of American women trying to reconcile the irreconcilable to preserve both their principles and their peace. It expands our understanding of women as political actors and thinkers about foreign policy as it sheds new light on American public opinion over the build up to the war.

History Ahead Dan K. Utley, Cynthia J. Beeman, 2010-02-10 More than 13 000 historical markers line the roadsides of Texas giving drivers a way to sample the stories of the past. But these markers tell only part of the story. In History Ahead Dan K. Utley and Cynthia J. Beeman introduce readers to the rich, colorful and sometimes action-packed and humorous history behind the famous Charles Lindbergh, Will Rogers, The Big Bopper and jazz great Charlie Christian and the not so famous Elmer Lumpy Kleb, Don Pedro Jaramillo and Carl Morene, the music man of Schulenburg who have left their marks on the history of Texas. They visit cotton gins, abandoned airfields, forgotten cemeteries and former World War II alien detention camps to dig up the little-known and unsuspected narratives behind the text emblazoned on these markers. Written in an anecdotal style that presents the cultural uniqueness and rich diversity of Texas history, History Ahead includes nineteen main stories, dozens of complementary sidebars and many never-before-published historical and contemporary photographs. History Ahead offers a rich array of local stories that interweave with the broader regional and national context, touching on themes of culture, art, music, technology, the environment, oil, aviation and folklore among other topics. Utley and Beeman have located these forgotten gems, polished them up to a high shine and offered them along with convenient maps and directions to the marker sites.
