Franz Kafka, Hannah Arendt, Max BROD, Martin GREENBERG, Joseph KRESH, 1948 1914-1923 Franz Kafka, Max Brod, 1949 Zionism, the German Empire, and Africa Axel Stähler, 2018-11-05 Zionism the German Empire and Africa explores the impact on the self perception and culture of early Zionism of contemporary constructions of racial difference and of the experience of colonialism in imperial Germany More specifically interrogating in a comparative analysis material ranging from mainstream satirical magazines and cartoons to literary aesthetic and journalistic texts advertisements postcards and photographs monuments and campaign medals ethnographic exhibitions and publications popular entertainment political speeches and parliamentary reports the book situates the short lived but influential Zionist satirical magazine Schlemiel 1903 07 in an extensive network of nodal clusters of varying and shifting significance and with differently developed strains of cohesion or juncture that roughly encompasses the three decades from 1890 to 1920 Franz Kafka's Theory of Literature Chu-tsing Li, 1949 Freedom and Dialogue in a Polarized World Sharon Schuman, 2013-12-11 Freedom and Dialogue in a Polarized World argues that our most cherished ideas about freedom being left alone to do as we please or uncovering the truth have failed us They promote the polarized thinking that blights our world Rooted in literature political theory and Mikhail Bakhtin s theories of language this book introduces a new concept dialogic freedom This concept combats polarization by inspiring us to feel freer the better able we are to see from the perspectives of others To say that freedom is dialogic is to apply to it an idea about language If you and I are talking I anticipate from you a response that could be friendly hostile or indifferent and this awareness helps determine what I say If you look bored or give me a blank stare I might not say anything at all In this sense language is dialogic The same can be said of freedom Our decisions take into account the voices of others to which we feel answerable and these voices coauthor our choices In today s polarized world prevailing concepts of freedom as autonomy and enlightenment have encouraged us to take refuge in echo chambers among the like minded Whether the subject is abortion terrorism or gun control these concepts encourage us to shut out the voices of those who dare to disagree We need a new way to think about freedom Freedom and Dialogue in a Polarized World presents riveting moments of choice from Homer s

Iliad Dante's Inferno Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice Milton's Paradise Lost Melville's Benito Cereno Dostoevsky's The Brothers Karamazov Kafka's In the Penal Colony and Morrison's Beloved in order to advocate reading for and with dialogic freedom It ends with a practical application to the debate about abortion and an invitation to rethink other polarizing issues For more information please visit <http://dialogicfreedom.weebly.com>

Tropes, Parables, and Performatives J. Hillis Miller, 1991-12-06 Tropes Parables Performatives collects J Hillis Miller's essays on seven major twentieth century authors Lawrence Kafka Stevens Williams Woolf Hardy and Conrad For all their evident differences these essays from early to late explore a single intuition about literature which may be framed by three words trope parable and performative Throughout these essays Miller is fascinated with the tropological dimension of literary language with the way figures of speech turn aside the telling of a story or the presentation of a literary theme The exploration of this turning leads to the recognition that all works of literature are parabolic thrown beside their real meaning They tell one story but call forth something else Miller further agrees that all parables are fundamentally performative They do not merely name something or give knowledge but rather use words to make something happen to get the reader from here to there Each essay here attempts to formulate what in a given case the reader performatively enters by way of parabolic trope
