Diary Of A Girl In Changi:

DIARY OF A GIRL IN CHANGI. SHEILA. ALLAN, 2016 Diary of a Girl in Changi Sheila Allan, 2002 In 1941 at the age of seventeen Sheila Allan's life was plunged into a nightmare For the next three and a half years she was a prisoner of the Japanese in Changi Prison and Sime Road Camp This book is the moving personal account of a young girl living in the midst of hardship and adversity Written on scraps of paper which were kept hidden in her quarters Sheila Allan's diary is a record of the daily lives of those interned in Changi On the one hand these were years of wasted youth on the other they provided a rich learning experience in a community of close comradeship Tolerance humour and creativity and above all an undying hope for the future colour her memories of this period This new edition includes information on the Changi quilts These embroidered squares individually created and signed by the women internees were sewn together into three separate quilts The quilts can be seen at the Australian War Memorial in Canberra Diary of a Girl in Changi, 1941-1945 Sheila Allan, 2004 Diary of a Girl in Changi is the moving personal account of a young girl living in the midst of hardship and adversity Written on scraps of paper which were kept hidden in her quarters Sheila Allan's diary is a record of the daily lives of those interned in Changi On the one hand these were years of wasted youth on the other they provided a rich learning experience in a community of close comradeship Tolerance humour and creativity and above all an undying hope for the future colour her memories of this period This third edition includes a new Preface and Conclusion which tie up the loose ends of the original Diary of a Girl in Changi Also included is information on the Changi quilts These embroidered squares individually created and signed by the women internees were sewn together into three separate quilts and can be seen at the Australian War Memorial in Canberra Australia Diary of a Girl in Changi, 1941-45 Sheila Allan, 1994 A wartime diary kept by a 17 year old woman of Australian and Malaysian descent imprisoned during World War II Sheila Bruhn's account is a woman's view of war and the Japanese occupation of Malaysia New Perspectives on the Japanese Occupation in Malaya and Singapore, 1941-1945 Yōji Akashi, Mako Yoshimura, 2008-12-01 Information on the Japanese Occupation of Malaya and Singapore is sparse and Japanese language materials are particularly difficult to find because the Japanese military systematically destroyed war related documents when the war ended The contributors to this volume participated in a Forum that spent four years locating surviving materials relating to the Occupation of Malaya The group had three objectives to collect primary sources to interview Japanese military and civilian officials who took part in the military administration and people in Malaysia and Singapore who experienced the period and to publish the results of the studies Based on interviews with Japanese Malaysians and Singaporeans who lived through the war years and materials gathered from archives and libraries in Britain Malaysia Singapore USA Australia and India the Forum has produced a number of Japanese language publications This book makes available some of their research findings in English Topics covered include the Watanabe Military Administration Japanese research activities in Malaya Japan's Economic Policies Malayan Communist Party Leaders and the Anti Japanese Resistance the Massacre of Chinese in Singapore Railway Transportation during the Japanese Occupation Period The Singapore Internment Camp for Allied Civilian Women and the Japanese Surrender This volume is a revised version of Akashi Yoji ed Nippon Senryoka no Eiryo Maraya Shingaporu Tokyo Iwanami Shoten Publishers Co 2001

A History of Modern Singapore, 1819-2005 C.M. Turnbull, 2009-01-01 When C M Turnbull's A History of Singapore 1819 1975 appeared in 1977 it quickly achieved recognition as the definitive history of Singapore A second edition published in 1989 brought the story up to the elections held in 1988 In this fully revised edition rewritten to take into account recent scholarship on Singapore the author has added a chapter on Goh Chok Tong's premiership 1990 2004 and the transition to a government headed by Lee Hsien Loong The book now ends in 2005 when the Republic of Singapore celebrated its 40th anniversary as an independent nation Major changes occurred in the 1990s as the generation of leaders that oversaw the transition from a colony to independence stepped aside in favour of a younger generation of leaders Their task was to shape a course that sustained the economic growth and social stability achieved by their predecessors and they would be tested towards the end of the decade when Southeast Asia experienced a severe financial crisis Many modern studies on Singapore focus on current affairs or very recent events and pay a great deal of attention to Singapore's successful transition from the developing to the developed world However younger historians are increasingly interested in other aspects of the country's past particularly social and cultural issues A History of Modern Singapore 1819 2005 provides a solid foundation and an overarching framework for this research surveying Singapore's trajectory from a small British port to a major trading and financial hub within the British Empire and finally to the modern city state that Singapore became after gaining independence in 1965

'Boredom is the Enemy' Amanda Laugesen, 2016-04-15 War is often characterised as one percent terror 99 per cent boredom Whilst much ink has been spilt on the one per cent relatively little work has been directed toward the other 99 per cent of a soldier's time As such this book will be welcomed by those seeking a fuller understanding of what makes soldiers endure war and how they cope with prolonged periods of inaction It explores the issue of military boredom and investigates how soldiers spent their time when not engaged in battle work or training through a study of their creative imaginative and intellectual lives It examines the efforts of military authorities to provide solutions to military boredom and the problem of discipline and morale through the provisioning of entertainment and education but more importantly explores the ways in which soldiers responded to such efforts arguing that soldiers used entertainment and education in ways that suited them The focus in the book is on Australians and their experiences primarily during the First World War but with subsequent chapters taking the story through the Second World War to the Vietnam War This focus on a single national group allows questions to be raised about what might or might not be exceptional about the experiences of a particular national group and the ways national identity can shape an individual's relationship and engagement with education and entertainment It can also suggest the continuities and changes in these experiences through the course of three wars The story of Australians at war illuminates a much broader story of the experience of war and people's responses to war in the twentieth century

The Architecture of Confinement Anoma Pieris, Lynne Horiuchi, 2022-02-24 In this global and comparative study of Pacific War incarceration environments we explore the arc of the Pacific Basin as an archipelagic network of militarized penal sites Grounded in spatial physical and material analyses focused on experiences of civilian internees minority citizens and enemy prisoners of war the book offers an architectural and urban understanding of the unfolding history and aftermath of World War II in the Pacific Examples are drawn from Australia New Zealand Singapore Japan and North America The Architecture of Confinement highlights the contrasting physical facilities urban formations and material character of various camps and the ways in which these uncover different interpretations of wartime sovereignty The exclusion and material deprivation of selective populations within these camp environments extends the practices by which land labor and capital are expropriated in settler colonial societies practices critical to identity formation and endemic to their legacies of liberal democracy

Cultural Heritage and Prisoners of War Gilly Carr, Harold Mytum, 2012-04-27 This book focuses on the numerous examples of creativity produced by POWs and civilian internees during their captivity including paintings cartoons craftwork needlework acting musical compositions magazine and newspaper articles wood carving and recycled Red Cross tins turned into plates mugs and makeshift stoves all which have previously received little attention The authors of this volume show the wide potential of such items to inform us about the daily life and struggle for survival behind barbed wire Previously dismissed as items which could only serve to illustrate POW memoirs and diaries this book argues for a central role of all items of creativity in helping us to understand the true experience of life in captivity The international authors draw upon a rich seam of material from their own case studies of POW and civilian internment camps across the world to offer a range of interpretations of this diverse and extraordinary material
