Diary Of Mr Pinke:

The Diary of Mr. Pinke Ewald Murrer, 1995 The Diary of Mr Pinke is written as a compilation of journal entries spanning March to December and relating the strange happenings amongst a group of village residents including a rabbi a magic goat an ancient Gypsy and a fortuneteller in a mythical region which could be the Galician countryside Suffused with a surrealistic quality as people and beasts float across the landscape leaving only cryptic traces of their passage Murrer s use of folklore and myth connects him to a tradition of Czech literature begun early in this century
