Dictionary of the Classical Newārī Hans Jørgensen,1995 Classical Nepali Language Dictionary A dictionary of the classical newari Hans Jorgensen,1936 A Grammar of Dolakha Newar Carol Genetti,2009-02-26 A Grammar of Dolakha Newar is the first fully comprehensive reference grammar of a Newar variety Dolakha Newar is of particular interest as it is member of the mutually unintelligible eastern branch of the family so allows for an important comparative perspective on this significant Tibeto Burman language In addition to a chapter on phonetics and phonology the book contains a separate chapter on prosody There are also distinct chapters on each word class with full discussion of the morphological and syntactic properties of each class The book provides an extensive study of syntax including complete chapters on constructions clause structure constituent order grammatical relations nominalization complementation the participial construction and the complex sentence as well as a detailed chapter on tense and aspect Brimming with examples from natural discourse the book couples rigorous description of the language s structures with full discussion of how the structures are used in connected speech Each analysis is presented with full argumentation and competing analyses are contrasted and discussed The result is a rich readable and beautifully argued portrait of a language and how it works

Medieval Tibeto-Burman Languages Christopher Beckwith,2002-01-01 This book on the pre modern Tibeto Burman languages represents a movement to establish a field of Tibeto Burman comparative historical linguistics according to the classical Indo European model The book contains papers by T Takeuchi on Old Zhang zhung A Zadoks on Old Tibetan K Tamot on Early Classical Newari C Beckwith on Pyu R Yanson on Old Burmese S Chelliah and S Ray on Early Meithei D Bradley on Tibeto Burman and C Beckwith on Sino Tibetan Glossaries of several early Tibeto Burman languages are included It provides information not found in any other source on early Tibeto Burman literary languages and their position within Tibeto Burman as well as their relationship to Chinese and other languages The Languages and Linguistics of South Asia Hans Henrich Hock,Elena Bashir,2016-05-24 With nearly a quarter of the world s population members of at least five major language families plus several putative language isolates South Asia is a fascinating arena for linguistic investigations whether comparative historical linguistics studies of language contact and multilingualism or general linguistic theory This volume provides a state of the art survey of linguistic research on the languages of South Asia with contributions by well known experts Focus is both on what has been accomplished so far and on what remains unresolved or controversial and hence offers challenges for future research In addition to covering the languages their histories and their genetic classification as well as phonetics phonology morphology syntax and sociolinguistics the volume provides special coverage of contact and convergence indigenous South Asian grammatical traditions applications of modern technology to South Asian languages and South Asian writing systems An appendix offers a classified listing of major sources and resources both digital online and printed The Sino-Tibetan Languages Graham Thurgood, Randy J. LaPolla, 2016-12-08 There are more native speakers of Sino Tibetan languages than of any other language family in the world Our records of these languages are among the oldest for any human language and the amount of active research on them has multiplied in the last few decades Now in its second edition and fully updated to include new research The Sino Tibetan Languages includes overview articles on individual languages with an emphasis on the less commonly described languages as well as descriptions and comments on the subgroups in which they occur There are overviews of the whole family on genetic classification and language contact syntax and morphology and also on word order typology There are also more detailed overview articles on the phonology morphosyntax and writing system of just the Sinitic side of the family Supplementing these overviews are articles on Shanghainese Cantonese and Mandarin dialects Tibeto Burman is reviewed by genetic or geographical sub group with overview articles on some of the major groups and areas and there are also detailed descriptions of 41 individual Tibeto Burman languages written by world experts in the field Designed for students and researchers of Asian languages The Sino Tibetan Languages is a detailed overview of the field This book is invaluable to language students experts requiring concise but thorough information on related languages and researchers working in historical typological and comparative linguistics
