Despite The Plainness Of Day:

Unnoticed in the Casual Light of Day Tijana Stojkovic, 2013-10-23 Larkin's poems are often regarded as falling somewhere between the traditional plain and the more contemporary postmodern categories. This study undertakes a comprehensive linguistic and historical study of the plain style tradition in poetry, its relationship with so-called difficult poetry and its particular realization in the cultural and historical context of 20th-century Britain. The author examines the nature of poetry as a type of discourse, the elements of and factors in the development of literary styles, a close rhetorical examination of Larkin's poems within the described poetic frameworks and his position in the British twentieth-century poetic canon.

Perspectives on Atonement Deidre Nicole Green, Eric D. Huntsman, 2024-01-02 New approaches to a central area of Latter-day Saint belief. The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and other Christians have always shared a fundamental belief in the connection between personal salvation and the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. While having faith in and experiencing the atonement of Christ remains a core tenet for Latter-day Saints, some thinkers have in recent decades reconsidered traditional understandings of atonement. Deidre Nicole Green and Eric D. Huntsman edit a collection that brings together multiple and diverse approaches to thinking about Latter-day Saint views on this foundational area of theology. The essayists draw on and go beyond a wide range of perspectives, classical atonement theories, and contemporary reformulations of atonement theory. The first section focuses on scriptural and historical foundations, while the second concentrates on theological explorations. Together, the contributors evaluate what is efficacious and ethical in the Latter-day Saint outlook and offer ways to reconceive those views to provide a robust theological response to contemporary criticisms about atonement. Contributors: Nicholas J. Frederick, Fiona Givens, Deidre Nicole Green, Sharon J. Harris, J. B. Haws, Eric D. Huntsman, Benjamin Keogh, Ariel Bybee, Laughton Adam S. Miller, Jenny Reeder, T. Benjamin Spackman, and Joseph M. Spencer.
