Destination Marketing Organisations Bridging Theory And Practice:

Marketing and Managing Tourism Destinations Alastair M. Morrison, 2023-07-31 Marketing and Managing Tourism Destinations is a comprehensive and integrated introductory textbook covering destination management and marketing in one volume. It focuses on how destination management is planned, implemented and evaluated, as well as the management and operations of destination management organizations (DMOs), how they conduct business, major opportunities and challenges, and issues they face to compete for the global leisure and business travel markets. Much has changed since the publication of the second edition of this book in 2018. The COVID-19 pandemic was unpredictable at the time and has caused havoc for destinations and DMOs. The third edition includes many materials about the COVID-19 impacts and recovery from the pandemic. This third edition has been updated to include four new chapters: Chapter 2 Destination Sustainability and Social Responsibility; Chapter 3 Quality of Life and Well Being of Destination Residents; Chapter 11 Destination Crisis Management; and Chapter 20 Destination Management Performance Measurement and Management. It includes new and updated international case examples to show the practical realities and approaches to managing different destinations around the world, coverage of contemporary topics including for example COVID-19, social responsibility, metaverse, mixed reality, virtual meetings, teleworking, digital nomads, viral marketing, blended travel, regenerative tourism, meaningful travel, and several others. It features a significantly improved illustration program, keyword lists, and is illustrated in full color and packed with features to encourage reflection on main themes, spur critical thinking, and show theory in practice. Written by an author with many years of industry practice, university teaching, and professional training experience, this book is the essential guide to the subject for tourism, hospitality, and events students and industry practitioners alike.

Routledge Handbook of Tourism Cities

Alastair M. Morrison, J. Andres Coca-Stefaniak, 2020-08-27 The Routledge Handbook of Tourism Cities presents an up-to-date critical and comprehensive overview of established and emerging themes in urban tourism and tourist cities. Offering socio-cultural perspectives and multidisciplinary insights from leading scholars, the book explores contemporary issues, challenges, and trends. Organised into four parts, the handbook begins with an introductory section that explores contemporary issues, challenges, and trends that tourism cities face today. A range of topics are explored, including sustainable urban tourism, overtourism, and urbanisation; the impact of terrorism; visitor-host interactions; as well as reflections on present and future challenges for tourism cities. In Part II, the marketing, branding, and markets for tourism cities are considered, exploring topics such as destination marketing and branding, business travellers, and exhibition hosting. This section combines academic scholarship with real-life practice and case studies from cities. Part III discusses product and technology developments for tourism cities, examining their supply and impact on different travellers, from open-air markets to creative waterfronts, from social media to smart cities. The final Part offers examples of how urban tourism is developing in different parts of the world and how worldwide tourism cities are adapting to the challenges ahead. It also explores emerging forms of specialist tourism.

including geology and ecology based tourism socialist heritage and post communist destination tourism This handbook fills a notable gap by offering a critical and detailed understanding of the diverse elements of the tourist experience today It contains useful suggestions for practitioners as well as examples for theoretical frameworks to students in the fields of urban tourism and tourism cities The handbook will be of interest to scholars and students working in urban tourism heritage studies human geography urban studies and urban planning sociology psychology and business studies Medical Tourism and Transnational Health Care D.
