Female Corpses in Crime Fiction Glen S. Close, 2018-10-10 This book examines the central significance of sexualized female corpses in modern and contemporary Hispanic and Anglophone crime fiction Beginning with the foundational detective fictions of the nineteenth century it draws from diverse subgenres to describe a transatlantic tradition of necropornography characterized by lascivious interest in female cadavers dissection morgues femicide and snuff movies Hard boiled and police procedural classics from the U S and the U K are juxtaposed with texts by established Spanish and Spanish American genre masters and with obscure works that prefigure the contemporary transmedial boom in corpse centered fictions The rhetoric and aesthetics of necropornographic crime fiction are related to those of popular crime journalism and forensic science television dramas This study argues that crime fiction has long fixated disproportionately on the corpses of beautiful young white women and continues to treat their deaths and autopsies as occasions for male visual pleasure male subjective self affirmation and male homosocial bonding

Violence and Politics Kenton Worcester, Sally Avery Bermanzohn, Mark Ungar, 2013-10-08 Violence and Politics points out a paradox of contemporary political violence it appears to be growing in scope and complexity even in this era of unprecedented democratic and economic growth These essays cover a number of timely issues including pro life terrorism hate crimes Islam s connection or stereotyped connection to violence rape as a war crime ethnic conflicts and violence against those protesting for civil rights for women gays and lesbians and blacks Contributors cross disciplines and subdisciplines to examine the counter intuitive persistence of violence in advanced democracies and in steadily improving developing countries
