Detecting Texts The Metaphysical Detective Story From Poe To Postmodernism:

Detecting Texts Patricia Merivale, Susan Elizabeth Sweeney, 2011-06-07 Although readers of detective fiction ordinarily expect to learn the mystery's solution at the end there is another kind of detective story the history of which encompasses writers as diverse as Poe Borges Robbe Grillet Auster and Stephen King that ends with a question rather than an answer The detective not only fails to solve the crime but also confronts insoluble mysteries of interpretation and identity As the contributors to Detecting Texts contend such stories belong to a distinct genre the metaphysical detective story in which the detective hero's inability to interpret the mystery inevitably casts doubt on the reader's similar attempt to make sense of the text and the world Detecting Texts includes an introduction by the editors that defines the metaphysical detective story and traces its history from Poe's classic tales to today's postmodernist experiments In addition to the editors contributors include Stephen Bernstein Joel Black John T Irwin Jeffrey T Nealon and others

Body, Letter, and Voice Maria Plochocki, 2010 The author treats in historical and philosophical terms the contributions of the traditionally marginalized genre of detective fiction to epistemology how detective fiction not only traces the progression of knowledge and its discovery as has been the traditional model for understanding this genre but in fact constructs it through narrative Particular focus is on Colin Dexter creator of the Inspector Morse character and series This work also links detective fiction to more legitimate accepted realms of literature and criticism semiotics the reading of clues with the body as a major one epistolary fiction long hailed as an early form of the modern novel and heteroglossia an important aspect of Marxist theory here linked to the power struggles and imbalances produced by the pursuit and construction of knowledge

Detective Fiction and the Problem of Knowledge Antoine Dechéne, 2018-08-16 This book establishes the genealogy of a subgenre of crime fiction that Antoine Dechéne calls the metacognitive mystery tale It delineates a corpus of texts presenting unreadable mysteries which under the deceptively monolithic appearance of subverting traditional detective story conventions offer a multiplicity of motifs the overwhelming presence of chance the unfulfilled quest for knowledge the urban stroller lost in a labyrinthine text that generate a vast array of epistemological and ontological uncertainties Analysing the works of a wide variety of authors including Edgar Allan Poe Jorge Luis Borges and Henry James this book is vital reading for scholars of detective fiction

The Cambridge Introduction to Postmodern Fiction Bran Nicol, 2009-10-08 Postmodern fiction presents a challenge to the reader instead of enjoying it passively the reader has to work to understand its meanings to think about what fiction is and to question their own responses Yet this very challenge makes postmodern writing so much fun to read and rewarding to study Unlike most introductions to postmodernism and fiction this book places the emphasis on literature rather than theory It introduces the most prominent British and American novelists associated with postmodernism from the pioneers Beckett Borges and Burroughs to important post war writers such as Pynchon Carter Atwood Morrison Gibson Auster DeLillo and Ellis Designed for students and clearly written this Introduction explains the preoccupations styles and techniques that unite postmodern authors Their work is characterized by a self reflexive acknowledgement of its status as fiction and by the various ways in which it challenges readers to question common sense and commonplace assumptions about literature

The Cambridge Companion to Crime Fiction Martin Priestman,2003-11-06 The Cambridge Companion to Crime Fiction covers British and American crime fiction from the eighteenth century to the end of the twentieth As well as discussing the detective fiction of writers like Arthur Conan Doyle Agatha Christie and Raymond Chandler it considers other kinds of fiction where crime plays a substantial part such as the thriller and spy fiction It also includes chapters on the treatment of crime in eighteenth century literature French and Victorian fiction women and black detectives crime on film and TV police fiction and postmodernist uses of the detective form The collection by an international team of established specialists offers students invaluable reference material including a chronology and guides to further reading The volume aims to ensure that its readers will be grounded in the history of crime fiction and its critical reception

Constellations of Reading Carlo Salzani,2009 How to read Walter Benjamin today This book argues that the proper way is through an approach which recognizes and respects his own peculiar theorization of the act of reading and the politics of interpretation that this entails The approach must be figural that is focused on images and driven by the notion of actualization Figural reading in the very sui generis Benjaminian way understands figures as constellations whereby an image of the past juxtaposes them with an image of the present and is thus actualized To apply this method to Benjamin s own work means first to identify some figures The book singles out the Fl neur the Detective the Prostitute and the Ragpicker and then sets them alongside a contemporary account of the same figure the Fl neur in Juan Goytisolo s Landscapes after the Battle 1982 the Detective in Paul Auster s New York Trilogy 1987 the Prostitute in Dacia Maraini s Dialogue between a Prostitute and her Client 1973 and the Ragpicker in Mudrooroo s The Mudrooroo M ller Project 1993 The book thereby on the one hand analyses the politics of reading Benjamin today and on the other sets his work against a variety of contemporary aesthetics and politics of interpretation

The Fantastic in Holocaust Literature and Film Judith B. Kerman,John Edgar Browning,2014-11-18 When reality becomes fantastic what literary effects will render it credible or comprehensible To respond meaningfully to the surreality of the Holocaust writers must produce works of moral and emotional complexity One way they have achieved this is through elements of fantasy Covering a range of theoretical perspectives this collection of essays explores the use of fantastic story telling in Holocaust literature and film Writers such as Jane Yolen and Art Spiegelman are discussed as well as the sci fi television series V 1983 Stephen King s novella Apt Pupil 1982 Guillermo del Toro s Pan s Labyrinth 2006 and Martin Scorsese s dark thriller Shutter Island 2010

Crime Fiction John Scaggs,2005-01-14 Crime Fiction provides a lively introduction to what is both a wide ranging and hugely popular literary genre Using examples from a variety of novels short stories films and televisions series John Scaggs presents a concise history of crime fiction from biblical narratives to James Ellroy broadening the genre to include revenge tragedy and the gothic novel explores the key sub genres of crime

Re-envisioning the Mind-body Labyrinth Amy Lynn Nolan, 2005 Pynchon Notes, 1999 Journal of American Studies, 2003 Paul Auster and Postmodern Quest Ilana Shiloh, 2002 Paul Auster published his first prose work the autobiographical The Invention of Solitude in 1982 since then his fiction has gained ever growing popular and critical acclaim This book is a stimulating pioneering study of eight works that make up the Auster canon The Invention of Solitude the three novellas that comprise The New York Trilogy and the novels In the Country of Last Things Moon Palace The Music of Chance and Leviathan Focusing on the quest which she sees as the master narrative of all of Auster's novels Shiloh examines Auster's writing in a multi layered context of literary and philosophical paradigms relevant to his practice such as the American tradition of the open road the generic conventions of detective fiction postmodernist concepts of the subject Sartre's and Camus's existentialist theories and Freud's and Lacan's psychoanalytic models all of which offer enriching and insightful perspectives on Auster's poetics Kathy Acker and Transnationalism Polina Mackay, Kathryn Nicol, 2009 Since Kathy Acker's death in 1997 the body of critical work on her fiction has continued to grow and even to flourish The continuing critical attention that her work has received is testament both to the complexity and intellectual scope of her many artistic and critical projects and to the continuing relevance of her concerns and ambitions in the recent and contemporary world a world that her fictions prefigure and interrogate in ways that we perhaps could not have recognized during her lifetime This collection of essays provides readers with access to a range of critical and theoretical essays that present a detailed analysis of transnationalism in Kathy Acker TM s fiction A wider aim of this book is to locate Acker TM s work in the context of current debates on transnationalism postnationalism and global identity Kathy Acker and Transnationalism therefore constitutes a timely re appraisal of an important American writer and a contribution to the growing field of studies in transnationalism

Memory, Imagination and Desire in Contemporary Anglo-American Literature and Film Constanza del Río Álvaro, Luis M. García Mainar, 2004 This volume offers a series of analyses on the renewed interest of western culture in themes and aesthetic proposals that either look back to the past or recreate future worlds The turn of the century has witnessed artistic efforts to reconsider past literary and cinematographic forms and adapt them to the new social concerns of contemporary artists and readers viewers Similarly science fiction and utopian narratives have attempted to reshape the world as we know it and speculate about the mysteries the future might hold for us This book includes contributions that focus on and problematise the dialogue between past present and future in literary works and films produced within the English speaking context in the last two decades of the 20th century It is divided in five sections maps of the postmodern the postcolonial experience stories revisited popular narrative genres and views of the future which attempt to include all the motifs associated with that dialogue from the interaction of memory and history to the reformulation of old stories and forms or the representation of dystopian and utopian futures

The Ethical Component in Experimental British Fiction Since the 1960's Susana Onega Jaén, Jean-Michel Ganteau, 2007 Some humanist critics contend that only realist texts have an ethical function that there is no ethical message behind the parodic and self conscious games played by experimental fiction and that since emotion neutralises the ethical faculties there is no ethical dimension in such excess peddling postmodernist genres and modes as kitsch melodrama and romance Yet one may argue that the defamiliarisation imposed by parody metafictional overkill and sundry devices symptomatic of emotional paroxysm on the realist text involves some measure of criticism of received truth and makes for the practice of a non deontic ethics of truths that is also fairly often an ethics of alterity This volume examines analytical evidence for the ethical component in key experimental British novels from the 1960 s to the present with special focus on John Fowles Brigid Brophy B S Johnson Angela Carter Peter Ackroyd A S Byatt Martin Amis Zadie Smith Will Self Ian McEwan and Julian Barnes
