Transnational Landscapes and Postmodern Poetics Asma Hichri, Samira Mechri, 2017-11-06 This book moves beyond conventional conceptions of space and place to explore how the spatial imagination has informed our postmodern mapping of literature culture history geography and politics In this volume scholars from different academic fields contest new territories for critical expression venturing into a geocritical discussion of notions of identity borders territory cognitive geographies glocal cultural mobility gendered spaces post colonial cartographies and spaces of resistance These brilliant discussions of the postmodern dialectics of space and place invite a reappraisal of the value of space in our social political and historical realities thus extending the geographical imagination beyond its physical and territorial manifestations and investigating its hitherto uncharted spiritual psychic emotional literary and symbolic terrains Bringing together theoretical and critical contributions in the fields of culture history politics and literature this engaging work invites readers to think geocritically about the significance of space and place in the postmodern age It represents essential reading for students critics and scholars from various academic fields and disciplines including history geography cultural studies anthropology political science literature and critical theory Deterritorialisations ... Mark Dorrian, Gillian Rose, 2003 In recent years landscape has become increasingly recognised as a topic of central importance to a wide variety of disciplines To a large degree this recognition has been based upon an expanding appreciation of the political aspects of landscape its ideological character and effects Landscapes and Politics is an innovative cross disciplinary volume of new writing which brings together in a strategic and productive encounter a broad variety of critical work currently being done in this field With 28 papers and five photo essays Landscapes and Politics presents material by scholars and practitioners from anthropology archaeology architecture art history cultural studies English and American literature film studies fine art geography history landscape architecture philosophy political science and religious studies As an important marker of current methodologies research and practice across these different disciplinary areas Landscapes and Politics is an invaluable resource It will be of interest to all those concerned with current discourses and debates on landscape and its representation Communities Across Borders Paul Kennedy, Victor Roudometof, 2003-08-27 Communities across Borders examines the many ways in which national ethnic or religious groups professions businesses and cultures are becoming increasingly tangled together It show how this entanglement is the result of the vast flows of people meanings goods and money that now migrate between countries and world regions Now the effectiveness and significance of electronic technologies for interpersonal communication including cyber communities and the interconnectedness of the global world economy simultaneously empowers even the poorest people to forge effective cultures stretching national borders and compels many to do so to escape injustice and deprivation Movement and Performance in Berlin School Cinema Olivia Landry, 2019-02-08 Through a study of the contemporary German film movement the Berlin School Olivia Landry examines how narrative film has responded to our highly digitalized and mediatized age not with a focus on stasis and realism but by turning back to movement spectacle and performance She argues that a preoccupation with presence liveness and affect all of which are viewed as critical components of live performance can be found in many of the films of the Berlin School Challenging the perception that the Berlin School is a sheer adherent of slow cinema Landry closely analyzes the use of movement dynamism presence and speed in a broad selection of films to show how filmmakers such as Christian Petzold Angela Schanelec Thomas Arslan and Christoph Hochh usler invoke the pulse of the kinesthetic and the tangibly affective Her analysis draws on an array of film theories from early materialism to body theories phenomenology and contemporary affect theories Arguing that these theories readily and energetically forge a path from film to performance Landry traces a trajectory between the two through which live experience presence spectacle intersubjectivity and the body in motion emerge and powerfully intersect Ultimately Movement and Performance in Berlin School Cinema expands the methodological and disciplinary boundaries of film studies by offering new ways of articulating and understanding movement in cinema Beyond the Land Melissa

Weininger,2023-08-29 A re evaluation of the meaning and function of diaspora in contemporary Israeli culture This thought provoking exploration of literature and art examines contemporary Israeli works created in and about diaspora that exemplify new ways of envisioning a Jewish national identity Diaspora has become a popular mechanism to imagine non sovereign models of Jewish peoplehood but these models often valorize powerlessness in sometimes troubling ways In this book Melissa Weininger theorizes a new category of diaspora Israeli culture that is formed around and through notions of homeland and complicate the binary between diaspora and Israel The works addressed here inhabit and imagine diaspora from the vantage point of the putative homeland engaging both diasporic and Zionist models simultaneously through language geography and imagination These examples contend with the existence of the state of Israel and its complex implications for diaspora Jewish identities and nationalisms as well as the implications for Zionism of those diasporic conceptions of Jewish national identity This dynamic understanding of both an Israeli and a Jewish diaspora works to envision a non hegemonic Jewish nationalism that can negotiate both political imagination and reality Transforming Pedagogies

Through Engagement with Learners, Teachers and Communities Dat Bao,Thanh Pham,2021-06-12 This book identifies three types of influential forces that pose challenges to innovations socio cultural dynamics teacher individuality and local circumstances It uses languages cultural traits and intellectual heritages in the Asia Pacific region as an example to show the resistance to Western based pedagogies due to disparities between the innovations and these local heritages It reveals personal and professional values that teachers hold and how these values while seemingly supporting creative ideologies happen to prevent them from incorporating innovations in their practices The book discusses how informal educational activities and services that a society possesses could impede pedagogical innovations There is therefore a need for institutions and educators to develop a positive relationship between these phenomena and teaching innovations New
