New Short Form Content Ideas Ideas In The United States:

Online TV Catherine Johnson,2019-01-04 With growth in access to high speed broadband and 4G and increased ownership of smartphones tablets and internet connected television sets the internet has simultaneously begun to compete with and transform television Online TV argues that these changes create the conditions for an emergent internet era that challenges the language and concepts that we have to talk about television as a medium In a wide ranging analysis Catherine Johnson sets out a series of conceptual frameworks designed to provide a clearer language with which to analyse the changes to television in the internet era and to bring into focus the power dynamics of the online TV industry From providing definitions of online TV and the online TV industry to examining the ways in which technology rights interfaces and algorithms are used to control and constrain access to audiovisual content Online TV is a timely intervention into debates about contemporary internet and television cultures A must read for any students scholars and practitioners who want to understand and analyse the ways in which television is intertwining with and being transformed by the internet

Advocating for Sociolinguistic Justice in the United States Michelle F. Ramos Pellicia,Patricia MacGregor-Mendoza,Mercedes Niño-Murcia,2024-10-01 This collection focuses on social awareness and critical language awareness with the goal of enlightening and empowering multilingual and multicultural communities across the U S Each chapter brings to light the trauma gaps in services and misguided societal perceptions that adversely impact communities whose linguistic and cultural background and or status as migrants place them in vulnerable situations In doing so the authors and editors demonstrate how an increased awareness of diverse communities linguistic and cultural wealth can be leveraged to build strength and resilience in order to overcome physical verbal or symbolic violence and provide remedies for inequities in educational medical and legal contexts Showcasing discussions of the intersectionality and contexts in which language power migration and the cultural funds of knowledge of minoritized communities interact this volume will be of interest to students scholars and educators in sociolinguistics applied linguistics and language education Monthly Summary of Commerce and Finance of the United States United States.
