Integrating Technology in Literacy Instruction Jodi Pilgrim,Sheri Vasinda,Peggy S. Lisenbee,2025-03-21 In the second edition this text has been updated to address changing literacies surrounding students and the continued importance of effective communication using technology tools in K 12 classrooms Technology has the power and potential to transform teaching and learning in classrooms and to promote active learning interaction and engagement through readily available tools and applications While both technologies and research in literacy education rapidly evolve this book presents lasting frameworks for teachers to effectively evaluate and implement digital tools to enhance classroom literacies and learning Through the lens of Universal Design for Learning UDL this text equips educators to develop inclusive learning environments that support the needs and desires of all literacy learners through the integration of technology and literacy instruction This text presents a range of current models and frameworks including SAMR RAT PICRAT T3 TPACK TIPC and EMSCI The new edition of this book has been updated to include Alignment with ISTE standards in each chapter Updates from the 2024 UDL Guidelines 3 0 Updates from the most recent 2024 National Educational Technology Plan Updated technology applications including AI and its impact Tools for teaching through remote and distance learning Each chapter includes prompts for reflection and discussion to encourage readers to consider ways literacy and technology can enable teachers to become agents of change This book will be especially beneficial for pre service undergraduate and graduate teacher candidates as well as ISTE certified educators and those seeking certification

Artful AI in Writing Instruction Brett Vogelsinger, 2025-05-14 Discover strategies to use AI thoughtfully in every stage of the writing process without compromising creativity or critical thinking Feeling conflicted about integrating artificial intelligence AI into your writing instruction You're not alone In a world where AI generated text can seem like a writing teacher's enemy incorporating it into writing instruction may feel like an act of betrayal The advent of generative AI might feel like one more thing eroding students' capacity for deep thinking Artful AI in Writing Instruction offers strategies and lessons for middle and high school teachers to harness AI in a positive way integrating it into the writing process and evaluating the ethics of its usage Written by a full time high school teacher Brett Vogelsinger the book focuses on evergreen principles and ideas rather than specific AI tools providing concrete steps and lessons that teachers can implement without being technology experts Acknowledging the varying perspectives of teachers on AI in writing instruction from skepticism to enthusiasm Brett offers a human centered considered and ethical approach to using generative AI in the classroom Demonstrating how AI can be used artfully in the classroom to enhance students' writing skills and foster reflection on the writing process this book Provides standards aligned lessons that detail how AI can support instruction and assist students at each step of the writing process from prewriting through publishing Emphasizes how to use AI tools to mine authentic human ideas and enhance creativity in the classroom Aims to help teachers build a healthy relationship with AI technology and use it thoughtfully in their writing instruction Includes chapter features such as quotes from esteemed writers real teacher and student voices cautionary notes and Bot Thoughts entries of example AI output Artful AI in Writing Instruction is a book that explores technology with humility critiquing its drawbacks and harnessing its strengths in an effort to guide teachers on how to use AI to help students grow their thinking and their skills rather than bypassing that development Reader Bot Naomi S. Baron, 2026-01-20 What happens to human reading when AI bots can do it for us Explosive developments in artificial intelligence have awed everyday users with the technology's ability to draw do computer coding and especially to write Those AI generated essays and poems legal briefs and responses to requests for information are all visible evidence of large language models at work What we don't see is the critical prior step before it can write AI needs to read While AI's written outcomes are remarkably similar to what a diligent student lawyer or researcher might produce AI doesn't read the way that humans do Now that AI is proving an adept reader what happens to our own reading skills and motivations especially at a time when both voluntary and school reading are increasingly on the decline We have learned that when we let chatbots

write for us there are pros and cons to handing over our virtual pens It s critical that we also think through the consequences of relinquishing reading a deeply human activity to bots What do we stand to gain and lose when we let AI read for us Tracing the intersecting trajectories of AI and reading Reader Bot tackles this vital question revealing why we must be thoughtful about how we welcome AI as reader into our lives The Dare to be Different Book Magnus
