Desperately Seeking Paradise Paperback:

Desperately Seeking Paradise Ziauddin Sardar, 2020-03-31 A curious often amusing travelogue of Sardar's quest for understanding and the Muslims he has encountered along his journeys Publishers Weekly Ziauddin Sardar one of the foremost Muslim intellectuals in Britain learned the Koran at his mother's knee in Pakistan As a young student in London he set out to grasp the meaning of his religion and hopefully to find paradise his quest leading him throughout the Muslim world from Iran to China to Turkey Along the way he accepts that he may never reach paradise but it's the journey that's important At a time when the view of Islam in the West is so often distorted and simplistic Desperately Seeking Paradise self-mocking frank and passionate is essential reading Intoxicating upon finishing the book I turned back and started reading it all over again Kamila Shamise New Statesman At once earnest and humorous light-hearted and profound this is a book that displays a sustained capacity for self-questioning of a kind that has few parallels in the liberal West The Independent This challenging book not only acts as a guide for Muslims but provides insight and clarification for those outside the Islamic faith Financial Times The only funny book I've read about Islam Mail on Sunday Encounters with Islam in German Literature and Culture James R. Hodkinson, Jeffrey Morrison, 2009 German language writings about Islam not only reveal much about Islamic culture but also about the European home culture Islam has been a rich topic in German language literature since the middle ages and the writings about it not only reveal much about Islamic culture but also about the European home culture Many of the early essays in this chronologically arranged volume uncover fresh evidence of how German writers used images of Islam as other to define their individual subject positions as well as to define the German nation and the Christian religion The perspectives of many contemporary writers are however far removed from such a polar opposition of cultures Their experience of the German Islamic encounter is complicated by a crucial factor many of them emerge from Muslim migrant communities such as the German Turkish community The culturally hybrid origins of these writers and their expression of experiences and ideologies that cross boundaries of East and West Christendom and Islam strongly affect the findings of the essays as the volume moves toward the present The texts discussed include travelogues and other firsthand encounters with Islam reports for colonial authorities aesthetic treatises on Islamic art literary essayistic and theological writing on Islamic religious practice the incorporation of characters situations and settings from the Islamic world into fiction or drama and fictional and autobiographical writing by Muslims in German Contributors Cyril Edwards Silke Falkner James Hodkinson Timothy R Jackson Margaret Littler Rachel MagShamr in Frauke Matthes Yomb May Jeffrey Morrison Kate Roy Monika Shafi Edwin Wieringa W Daniel Wilson Karin E Yesilada James Hodkinson is Assistant Professor of German at Warwick University Jeffrey Morrison is Senior Lecturer at the National University of Ireland Maynooth Tempus with His Right-Side Companion Niko Janet Morris, 2011-04 Relive the iconic adventures of Tempus the Riddler and his Sacred Band through the eyes of Nikodemos his right side companion as Niko seeks his spirit's balance on Bandara's misty isles Five pivotal Sacred

Band stories from the earliest adventures of the Stepsons in a world of thieves Ride with Tempus and his Band once again for the first time PUBLISHER S NOTE Parts of this work have been published in substantially similar form in several volumes of the Shared Universe Series Thieves World r Living Our Religions Anjana Narayan, Bandana Purkayastha, 2009 The population of the South Asian Diaspora in the US is over 2 5 million people Yet in a post 9 11 climate of opinion little is known about this group beyond images of Muslim and Hindu fundamentalists and terrorists This is particularly true of women where simplistic assumptions about veils and subordination obscure the voices of the women themselves Rarely are Hindu and Muslim American women many of whom are social workers physicians lawyers academics students homemakers asked about their everyday lives and religious beliefs Living our Religions brings out these hidden stories from South Asian American women of Bangladeshi Pakistani Indian and Nepali origin Their accounts show how diverse and culturally dynamic religious practices emerge within the intersection of histories and politics of specific locales The authors describe the race gender and ethnic boundaries they encounter they also document how they resist and challenge these boundaries Living our Religions cuts through the myths and ethnocentrism of popular portrayals to reveal the vibrancy courage and agency of an invisible minority Other Contributors Shobha Hamal Gurung Selina Jamil Salma Kamal Shweta Majumdar Bidya Ranjeet Shanthi Rao Aysha Saeed Monoswita Saha Neela Bhattacharya Saxena Parveen Talpur Elora Halim Chowdhury and Rafia Zakaria New Statesman ,2006 Asia, Inc ,2004 The New York Times Index ,2002 Casting
