Destruction Of A Nation United States Policy Towards Angola Since 1945

Toyin Falola, Charles Thomas

Destruction Of A Nation United States Policy Towards Angola Since 1945:

The Destruction of a Nation George Wright, 1997 In this thorough examination of US policy towards Angola from 1945 up to the present George Wright assesses how each President from Truman to Clinton has carried out US foreign policy in general and in Angola specifically in a step by step case study that traces the dismantling of a Marxist regime by the West Wright demonstrates the influence that policy planning organisations have in determining foreign policy and emphasizes the internal debates and struggles inherent in carrying out foreign policy This well researched and well documented book is an invaluable critique of US intervention in a Third World state over five decades before and after the end of the Cold War

Armed Groups and Contemporary Conflicts Keith Krause, 2013-09-13 Armed groups operating beyond the state have become the most important actors in most contemporary wars and violent conflicts from Iraq and Afghanistan to Colombia and Somalia They come in a dizzying array of forms some informally linked to the state and state power others in opposition to the state some pursuing classic political goals others primarily predatory and large scale criminal enterprises All groups however challenge the state's Weberian monopoly of the legitimate use of force yet their origins evolution violent dynamics and relations with state power are poorly understood This interdisciplinary collection includes both conceptual and empirical studies of contemporary armed groups examining cases in Latin America Asia and Africa It brings sociological political economy and ethnographic approaches to bear on larger questions including armed groups and the changing nature of warfare the economic dimensions of their activities and means of engagement with armed actors It both broadens and sharpens our understanding of how force and violence are used in today's contemporary armed conflicts This book was published as a special issue of Contemporary Security Policy

Understanding Non-State Actors Eran Zohar, 2023-10-24 Understanding Non State Actors aims to reduce the scarcity of academic literature on armed non state actors NSAs that have always been a part of world politics and wars This monograph offers possibly for the first time a systematic historical review as well as a substantive theory of NSAs and their arming efforts The world has been astonished by the ability of the well armed Hamas to inflict heavy losses on the powerful Israel Thus from the Jewish rebellion against Rome to the war between the Ukrainian separatists and the Ukrainian government NSAs weapons acquisition has been vital for the build up of their force enabling both the employment of that force and its sustainability While weapons are not necessarily the most important factor in military build up NSAs need weapons to fight and revolts usually erupt after the organizers have acquired a certain number of weapons Conversely many revolts lose momentum and operations are not carried out or turn ineffective due to shortages of arms and ammunition A major theme of this monograph is that in spite of dramatic political and technological changes armed NSAs in different periods have employed similar methods to acquire weapons Self production looting and stealing external support and the arms trade were always the major ways for NSAs to acquire weapons though the importance of each method and the type of arms has changed remarkably over time Understanding Non State Actors discusses the factors political social cultural technological and organizational that have both facilitated and constrained the ability of NSAs to acquire arms Especially lecturers and students of Military Terrorism Conflict studies War and peace studies will benefit from this study The Cold War Spencer C. Tucker,2020-10-27 This sweeping reference work covers every aspect of the Cold War from its ignition in the ashes of World War II through the Berlin Wall and the Cuban Missile Crisis to the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 The Cold War superpower face off between the Soviet Union and the United States dominated international affairs in the second half of the 20th century and still reverberates around the world today This comprehensive and insightful multivolume set provides authoritative entries on all aspects of this world changing event including wars new military technologies diplomatic initiatives espionage activities important individuals and organizations economic developments societal and cultural events and more This expansive coverage provides readers with the necessary context to understand the many facets of this complex conflict The work begins with a preface and introduction and then offers illuminating introductory essays on the origins and course of the Cold War which are followed by some 1 500 entries on key individuals wars battles weapons systems diplomacy politics economics and art and culture Each entry has cross references and a list of books for further reading The text includes more than 100 key primary source documents a detailed chronology a glossary and a selective bibliography Numerous illustrations and maps are inset throughout to provide additional context to the material Gender, Conflict, and Peacekeeping Dyan Mazurana,Angela Raven-Roberts,Jane Parpart,2005-02-17 Peacekeeping has become a major international undertaking throughout the world from Africa to the Americas from Europe to Southeast Asia Yet until now there has been no systematic analysis of the key role of gender in post cold war conflicts and of post conflict peacekeeping efforts This groundbreaking volume explores how gender has become a central factor in shaping current thinking about the causes and consequences of armed conflict complex emergencies and reconstruction Drawing on expertise ranging from the highest levels of international policymaking down to the daily struggle to implement peacekeeping operations this work represents the full span of knowledge and experience about international intervention in local crises Presenting a rich array of examples from Angola Bosnia Herzegovina East Timor El Salvador the former Yugoslavia Guatemala Haiti Kosovo Liberia Mozambique Namibia Rwanda and Serbia the authors offer important insights for future peacekeeping and humanitarian missions The Destruction of a Nation George Wright,1997 This study sets out to show that the Angolan disaster was primarily the result of the campaign of destabilization conducted by South Africa with decisive US support The book details the history of fluctuating American foreign policies and spasmodic interventions in Angola since 1945 Securing Africa Toyin Falola,Charles Thomas,2013-10-30 Africa has been and currently is the site of numerous conflicts and crises Authors previously wrote of these as specifically African problems or the problems of Europeans in Africa but newer scholarship on other aspects of Africa has come to stress the interconnectness of Africa and the wider world Still it has often been limited to studies of isolated instances within African countries with little to no connection to greater patterns of international power and violence This volume explores the historical and present local and international dimensions of the myriad security crises in Africa from the role of international relations during liberation to multination efforts against piracy

Hot Spot: Sub-Saharan Africa Toyin Falola, Adebayo O. Oyebade, 2010-07-01 This book provides an extensive examination of the major conflicts in the extremely volatile region of sub Saharan Africa and their ramifications throughout the continent and beyond Conflict has been a critical factor in the making of contemporary Africa and its study is key to understanding the continent's tortuous history Hot Spot Sub Saharan Africa analyzes the area's major post independence conflicts intense enough to threaten national regional or international security This work defines conflict broadly to encompass political instability and state failure ethno religious tensions government and political corruption economic mismanagement and poverty cult violence and youth gangsterism Thematically organized chapters examine the origins and development of explosive hot spots including Sudan Somalia Rwanda and Democratic Republic of Congo in West Africa Nigeria Southern Africa the Horn of Africa and Central Africa and the Great Lakes region The book also explores outside factors that have impacted African conflicts such as superpower Cold War manipulation and foreign influence and intervention

The Catholic Church and the Nation-state Paul Christopher Manuel, Lawrence Christopher Reardon, Clyde Wilcox, 2006

Presenting case studies from sixteen countries on five continents The Catholic Church and the Nation State paints a rich portrait of a complex and paradoxical institution whose political role has varied historically and geographically In this integrated and synthetic collection of essays outstanding scholars from the United States and abroad examine religious diplomatic and political actions both admirable and regrettable that shape our world Kenneth R Himes sets the context of the book by brilliantly describing the political influence of the church in the post Vatican II era There are many recent instances the contributors assert where the Church has acted as both a moral authority and a self interested institution in the United States it maintained unpopular moral positions on issues such as contraception and sexuality yet at the same time it sought to cover up its own abuses it was complicit in genocide in Rwanda but played an important role in ending the horrific civil war in Angola and it has alternately embraced and suppressed nationalism by acting as the voice of resistance against communism in Poland whereas in Chile it once supported opposition to Pinochet but now aligns with rightist parties With an in depth exploration of the five primary challenges facing the Church theology and politics secularization the transition from serving as a nationalist voice of opposition questions of justice and accommodation to sometimes hostile civil authorities this book will be of interest to scholars and students in religion and politics as well as Catholic Church clergy and laity By demonstrating how national churches vary considerably in the emphasis of their teachings and in the scope and nature of their political involvement the analyses presented in this volume engender a deeper understanding of the role of the Roman Catholic Church in the world Rethinking the Economics of War Cynthia J. Arnson, I. William Zartman, 2005-10-12 Countries studied include Lebanon Sierra Leone Angola the Republic of the Congo Colombia and Afghanistan From Military Peace to Social Justice?, 2004 Power Politics and Peace Policies Thomas Ohlson, 1998 The aim of this comparative study is theory building Propositions indicators and research questions are derived from a typology of explanatory variables The research design is applied to eight conflict resolution processes in Southern Africa An analysis of bivariate covariation variable interaction and causal patterns in the cases is used to transform the typology into a preliminary theory Plans Unraveled Scott Kaufman, 2008 In this comprehensive overview of President Carter's foreign policy Scott Kaufman argues that Carter's style of leadership caused more failures than successes and that ultimately Carter should be judged a mediocre president The Road to Democracy in South Africa South African Democracy Education Trust, 2010 v 3

The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about Nationalism and Communist Party History Willie Thompson, 1997 In this issue of Socialist History Tom Nairn examines the implications for Scotland and the rest of the UK of a devolved Scottish parliament in the light of proposals by the Labour government for a referendum David Parker analyzes the functioning and legacy of the Communist Party Historians Group and Jo Stanley discusses her own reactions to organizing the archive of the Party The Hot 'Cold War' Vladimir Gennadyevich Shubin, 2008-10-20 This book analyses the causes of armed conflicts in Southern Africa during the Cold War It examines the influence of the various external forces in the region during this period and their relationship to local movements and governments The book focuses on states experiencing violent internal conflict and foreign intervention that is Angola Mozambique Namibia South Africa and Zimbabwe The author provides a unique history of the key part that the Soviet Union played in these developments Spanning 30 years the book explores how each country struggled for genuine independence against colonialism and apartheid and their place in the wider conflicts encompassed by the Cold War
