Detention Of Asylum Seekers In Europe Analysis And Perspectives:

Detention of Asylum Seekers in Europe Jane Hughes, Fabrice Liebaut, 1998-02-17 This volume presents a compilation of cross disciplinary essays written by representatives of non governmental and inter governmental organisations practising lawyers academics researchers and a psychiatrist which reflect the heightened concern among European refugee and human rights organisations about the increasing practice of detaining asylum seekers Topics explored include recent trends in western central and eastern Europe detention practice in the US Canada and Australia UNHCR s approach to detention of refugees and asylum seekers and the mental health implications of detention from a psycho medical viewpoint In addition the relevant European and UN legal instruments are analysed and examples are given from the case law The book is supplemented by detailed appendices setting out the texts of relevant international legal provisions together with a number of other reference documents including UNHCR s 1995 Guidelines on Detention and ECRE s 1996 and 1997 papers on detention and alternatives to detention In addition to providing both a description of current practice and a theoretical legal analysis of this type of administrative detention this volume is intended to serve as a practical tool and source of reference for individuals and organisations engaged in defending the rights of asylum seekers today Proceedings of the 2nd Colloquy on the European Convention on Human Rights and the Protection of Refugees, Asylum-seekers and Displaced Persons Council of Europe, 2000-01-01 Opening statement by Ms Erika Feller Patterns of Migration in Central Europe C. Wallace, D. Stola, 2001-05-04 Patterns of Migration in Central Europe brings together new material on migration in the region Poland Hungary the Czech Republic and Slovakia In the last ten years these countries have changed from being countries of emigration to countries of immigration As the next candidates for membership to the European Union migration has become a particularly important topic for these countries This book is designed as a key text for those interested in the development of the region and in European migration more generally The Treatment of Immigrants in the European Court of Human Rights Amanda Spalding, 2022-07-14 This book looks at how the European Court of Human Rights has addressed the question of immigration As immigration in Europe has increased so has its criminalisation This is a multi faceted phenomenon with criminal justice and harsh use of immigration measures becoming more and more entwined This book asks how has the European Court of Human Rights responded Drawing on case law from across the spectrum of rights it will show how effective it has been in countering detention and deportation if at all This makes an original contribution to growing focus on crimmigration Detention of Asylum Seekers in Europe ; Analysis and Perspectives Karin Lundgren, Stanford Journal of International Law, 2001 Child and Family Social Work, 2008-04-30 A special edition of Child Family Social Work focusing on the lives and circumstances of refugee and asylum seeking children and families in several countries Australia Ireland Norway and the United Kingdom Predominantly focusing on unaccompanied or separated children who come to these countries without an adult to look after them But equally importantly many children are accompanied by adult members who seek asylum and sometimes achieve their goal of full refugee status Papers include The child s or the State s best interests An examination of the ways immigration officials work with Unaccompanied asylum seeking minors in Norway Ada Engebriksen Asylum Children s rights and Social Work Sarah Cemlyn and Linda Briskman How social workers work with African Refugee Children and their families Toyin Okitikpi and Cathy Amer Promoting psychosocial wellbeing in unaccompanied minors in the United Kingdom Ravi Kohli and Rosie Mather Unsettling the social in social work responses to asylum seeking children in Ireland Alastair Christie The social services response to unaccompanied children in England Fiona Mitchell Each paper analyses the strength and weaknesses of the systems and practices in working with Asylum seekers and refugees

Human Rights and Non-discrimination in the 'War on Terror' Daniel Moeckli,2008-01-24 In the post September 11th era liberal democracies face the question of whether and if so to what extent they should change the relationship between liberty and security This book explores how three major liberal democratic states the United States the United Kingdom and Germany have approached this challenge by analysing the human rights impacts of their anti terrorism laws and practices The analysis reveals that the most far reaching restrictions of liberty have been imposed on minorities foreign nationals and certain racial ethnic and religious groups This Disparate treatment raises complex issues concerning the human right to non discrimination Differential treatment on the basis of nationality national origin race or religion is only compatible with the right to non discrimination if there are objective and reasonable grounds for it The author evaluates contemporary anti terrorism efforts for their compliance with this requirement Is there in the context of the current war on terror sufficient justification for applying powers of preventive detention or trial by special tribunal only to foreign nationals Are law enforcement methods or immigration policies that single out people for special scrutiny based on their national origin or their ethnic or religious appearance a suitable and proportionate means of countering terrorism The concluding part of the book argues that in the long term discriminatory anti terrorism measures will have impacts beyond their original scope and fundamentally reshape ordinary legal regimes and law enforcement methods

The Rights of Refugees under International Law James C. Hathaway,2005-09-15 This book presents the first comprehensive analysis of the human rights of refugees as set by the UN Refugee Convention In an era where States are increasingly challenging the logic of simply assimilating refugees to their own citizens questions are now being raised about whether refugees should be allowed to enjoy freedom of movement to work to access public welfare programs or to be reunited with family members Doubts have been expressed about the propriety of exempting refugees from visa and other immigration rules and whether there is a duty to admit refugees at all Hathaway links the standards of the UN Refugee Convention to key norms of international human rights law and applies his analysis to the world s most difficult protection challenges This is a critical resource for advocates judges and policymakers It will also be a pioneering scholarly work for graduate students of international and human rights law

Rights in Context Reza Banakar,2010 This collection offers a snapshot of how rights are debated and employed in public discourse to reshape legal and political relations at the beginning of the twenty first century They explore how rights are used to challenge the state of affairs by indiv

European Master's Degree in Human Rights and Democratisation,1999 Asylum Seekers and the State Claudia Tazreiter,2004 The author presents immigration policy as a process which has social consequences not only for the newcomer group but also for the wider receiver society This work considers the obligations which receiver societies have for considering refugee claims but at the same time assesses contemporary security concerns it also provides an introduction to the roles of non government organizations as stake holders in the political process The book also offers a study of the historical and cultural context of immigration in Germany and Australia which demonstrates the practical impact of these issues Responses to Traumatized Children Amer A. Hosin,2007 This book is the result of collaboration between professionals of multidisciplinary backgrounds providing a range of interests and expertise in the area of trauma in children The stimulating and though provoking evidence based research reaches across a comprehensive range of topics from problems of cultural sensitivity and resilience to the use of cognitive behavioural therapy and the prevention of secondary trauma among carers and healthcare providers Harvard Human Rights Journal ,2002

The Position of Aliens in Relation to the European Convention on Human Rights Hélène Lambert,Council of Europe,2001 This study examines the standards of treatment afforded to aliens under the European Convention on Human Rights and examines the concept of alienage under specific provisions of the Convention as well as in Strasbourg s case law South-east Europe Review for Labour and Social Affairs ,2008 Capitalist Punishment Andrew Coyle,Allison

Campbell,Rodney Neufeld,2003-04 Prison privatization is rapidly spreading in many Western countries as governments seek to manage burgeoning prison populations within the constraints of a neo liberal political agenda But how is public well being served when prisons are run for pofit This volume discusses privatization in its historical and ideological context and in relation to United nations standards and rules It examines the adverse effects of private prisons on physical and sexual abuse health care education training and rehabilitation as corporations seek to maximize profits and describes the impact of cost cutting on prison staff paying special attention to the effect on women children and minorities It also offers a glimpse into the transnational spread of privatized incarceration as developing nations bound by IMF restrictions are forced into the hands of transnational corporations to the detriment of local alternatives Refugee Survey Quarterly ,1999 West Africa ,2000

The Irish Student Law Review ,2002
