Detours And Lost Highways A Map Of Neo Noir:

Detours and Lost Highways Foster Hirsch, 1999 Detours and Lost Highways begins with the Orson Welles film Touch of Evil 1958 which featured Welles both behind and in front of the camera That movie is often cited as the end of the line noir's rococo tombstone the film after which noir could no longer be made or at least could no longer be made in the same way It is my belief Hirsch writes that neo noir does exist and that noir is entitled to full generic status Over the past forty years since noir's often claimed expiration it has flourished under various labels Among the movies he discusses as evidence Chinatown 1974 Body Heat 1981 John Woo's Hong Kong blood ballets e.g. The Killer 1989 and the pulpy oeuvre of Quentin Tarantino

Washington Post Book World Detours and Lost Highways Foster Hirsch, 1999 The author turns his penetrating eye on the cycle of crime movies that succeeded the classic genre film noir Orson Welles film Touch of Evil 1958 recently re-released is generally cited as the end of that line or in Hirsch's words noir's rococo tombstone But in its themes techniques and attitudes the genre has not only survived but in the 90's flourishes as never before Its retro edge has given it postmodern chic to the point where noir no longer simply the name of a film genre is also the name of a literary genre a pop album and a perfume So noir lives but like any genre that endures it has had to continually reinvent itself While its defining subjects violence sex greed loss of innocence remain as do its dominant character types the femme fatale her vulnerable male victim and the private eye burdened with his own code of honor these ingredients have been blended in strikingly new ways Hirsch demonstrates how neo noir has reflected changes in contemporary life from film technology to social values Relentlessly mobile camerawork multilayered soundtracks and lush colors now work to create dark stories that tell of growing cynicism about government distrust of the press tensions in gender politics and in race relations In his map of neo noir Hirsch revisits scores of films released over the last four decades Odds Against Tomorrow Chinatown The Manchurian Candidate Cape Fear Klute Body Heat The Last Seduction The Grifters The Usual Suspects L.A. Confidential and Pulp Fiction among many others

Back cover The Philosophy of Neo-Noir Mark T. Conard, 2007-01-05 Film noir is a classic genre characterized by visual elements such as tilted camera angles skewed scene compositions and an interplay between darkness and light Common motifs include crime and punishment the upheaval of traditional moral values and a pessimistic stance on the meaning of life and on the place of humankind in the universe Spanning the 1940s and 1950s the classic film noir era saw the release of many of Hollywood's best loved studies of shady characters and shadowy underworlds including Double Indemnity The Big Sleep Touch of Evil and The Maltese Falcon Neo noir is a somewhat loosely defined genre of films produced after the classic noir era that display the visual or thematic hallmarks of the noir sensibility The essays collected in The Philosophy of Neo Noir explore the philosophical implications of neo noir touchstones such as Blade Runner Chinatown Reservoir Dogs Memento and the films of the Coen brothers Through the lens of philosophy Mark T. Conard and the contributors examine previously obscure layers of meaning in these challenging films The contributors also consider these neo noir films as a means of addressing philosophical questions about guilt redemption the essence of human nature and problems of knowledge memory and identity In the neo noir universe the lines between right and wrong and good and evil are blurred and the detective and the criminal frequently mirror each other s most debilitating personality traits The neo noir detective more antihero than hero is frequently a morally compromised and spiritually shaken individual whose pursuit of a criminal masks the search for lost or unattainable aspects of the self Conard argues that the films discussed in The Philosophy of Neo Noir convey ambiguity disillusionment and disorientation more effectively than even the most iconic films of the classic noir era Able to self consciously draw upon noir conventions and simultaneously subvert them neo noir directors push beyond the earlier genre s limitations and open new paths of cinematic and philosophical exploration Detour Noah

Isenberg,2019-07-25 Long considered an unpolished gem of film noir the private treasure of film buffs cinephiles and critics Edgar G Ulmer s Detour 1945 has recently earned a new wave of recognition In the words of film critic David Thomson it is simply beyond remarkable The only B picture to make it into the National Film Registry of the Library of Congress Detour has outrun its fate as the bastard child of one of Hollywood s lowliest studios Ulmer s film follows in flashback the journey of Al Roberts Tom Neal a pianist hitching from New York to California to join his girlfriend Sue Claudia Drake a singer gone to seek her fortune in Hollywood In classic noir style Detour features mysterious deaths changes of identity an unforgettable femme fatale called Vera Ann Savage and in Roberts a wretched masochistic antihero Noah Isenberg s study of Detour draws on a vast array of archival sources unpublished letters and interviews to provide an animated and thorough account of the film s production history its critical reception its afterlife including various remakes and the different ways in which the film has been understood since its release He devotes significant attention to each of the key players in the film the crew as well as the principal actors while charting the uneasy transformation of Martin Goldsmith s pulp novel into Ulmer s signature film the disagreements between the director and writer and the severe financial and formal limitations with which Ulmer grappled The story that Isenberg tells rich in historical and critical insight replicates the briskness of a B movie The Philosophy of the Coen Brothers Mark T. Conard,2009-01-01 Many critics agree that Joel and Ethan Coen are one of the most visionary and idiosyncratic filmmaking teams of the last three decades Combining thoughtful eccentricity wry humor irony and often brutal violence the Coen brothers have crafted a style of filmmaking that pays tribute to classic American movie genres yet maintains a distinctly postmodern feel Since arriving on the film scene the Coens have amassed an impressive body of work that has garnered them critical acclaim and a devoted cult following From Raising Arizona and Fargo to O Brother Where Art Thou and No Country for Old Men the Coens have left an unmistakable imprint on Hollywood The Philosophy of the Coen Brothers investigates philosophical themes in the works of these master filmmakers and also uses their movies as vehicles to explore fundamental concepts of philosophy The contributing authors discuss concepts such as justice the problem of interpretation existential role playing the philosophy of comedy the uncertainty principle and the coldness of modernity The Philosophy of the Coen Brothers is not just for die hard Lebowsky Fest attendees but for anyone who enjoys big ideas on the big screen A Critical Companion to David Lynch Andrew M.
