Technical Bulletin and Review of Quality Building Products ,1954 Education and

Development in Nigerian Musa Balarabe,2018 The Quality of Education and Economic Development Stephen P. Heyneman,Daphne Siev White,1986 Although for many years the emphasis in education was on growth and on the need to provide more classrooms increasing attention has shifted recently toward the quality and value of the education being received This document contains two studies related to the subject of educational quality The first paper reviews the relevant research on this question and reveals that school quality has substantially greater effects on changes in students cognitive and behavioral outcomes in developing than in advanced countries It also finds that school quality seems to affect the lifetime earnings of all students regardless of the level of development of their countries The author concludes that in the long run the quality of schooling provided may be more important for the future economic prospects of developing nations than expanded access to poor quality education Nevertheless knowing that educational quality has an economic effect on development does not determine whether investments in educational quality will be successfully implemented This is the subject of the second study The author argues that educational systems proceed through a series of stages during which they are able to implement increasingly more complex educational investments Adult Learning Yearbook ,2007
